THIS 1998 ANNUAL REPORT OF GIVING GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGES THE GENEROSITY AND DEDICATION OF ALUMNI, FRIENDS, FACULTY, STUDENTS, STAFF, AND ORGANIZATIONS, WHOSE FINANCIAL SUPPORT AND THOUSANDS OF VOLUNTEER HOURS HAVE HELPED TO CREATE GREATER OPPORTUNITIES FOR INTELLECTUAL AND PROFESSIONAL GROWTH IN LEGAL EDUCATION.

THE ANTHONY J. PAGANO DEAN'S MERIT SCHOLARSHIP

The Law School dedicates this 1998 Annual Report of Giving to Anthony J. Pagano, Dean 1988-1998, in recognition of his integrity, creativity, spontaneity, sense of humor, and brilliant leadership. We pay special tribute to the following Founding Contributors of the ANTHONY J. PAGANO DEAN'S MERIT SCHOLARSHIP, whose individual gifts of $1,000 or more established the $107,000 endowment in 1998. The scholarship will be awarded at the discretion of the current dean to any J.D., LL.M., or S.J.D. student with financial need who demonstrates outstanding achievement during law school.

SPECIAL GIFT CLUBS

Private gifts enhance virtually every aspect of the Law School: curriculum enrichment, student financial aid, technology and equipment, the law library, faculty research, and a variety of special programs. Individual membership in the following gift clubs is based on pledge payments, current gifts of cash and securities, and employee matching gifts. Gifts-in-kind and unpaid pledges are not included. The Law School extends its heartfelt thanks to each of the following individuals whose financial support has had a measurable impact on the people and programs of Golden Gate University School of Law.

PRESIDENT'S CIRCLE

The leadership of those who set an exemplary standard of giving undergirds the Law School's ability to serve its constituents, communities and society with increasing effectiveness. Their example also encourages others to join in helping to assure our strong future. We deeply appreciate the substantial commitments made by the following students, staff, alumni and special friends, whose significant gifts of $1,000 or more have provided critical resources that enhance current programs and fund special Law School priorities. Together, these individuals contributed a total of $174,734 in 1998.

BRIDGE SOCIETY

A carefully planned estate can help avoid or reduce taxes, increasing the amount an individual can leave to heirs and favorite charities. While outright gifts address immediate needs, deferred gifts fulfill a vital role in securing the Law School's future. Membership in the Bridge Society is available to all those who notify us of their provision for the Law School through planned gifts such as bequests, charitable trusts, gifts of life insurance, and property. We are particularly proud to recognize the following founding members of the Bridge Society, who have made commitments to the Law School in their estate plans.

FACULTY AND STAFF

An impressive testimonial to the Law School's value is the support of those who are closest to the everyday life of the school. During 1998, the following faculty and staff supported the Law School not only by embracing its teaching mission, but also through contributions to help meet its most pressing needs. The Law School is proud to acknowledge these gifts from current staff and faculty.

MATCHING GIFT COMPANIES

Matching gift companies are those enterprises which support higher education through a program whereby an employee's contribution is matched by the company. This generous program doubles, and sometimes triples, a personal gift to the Law School. The Law School applauds the philanthropic spirit of these companies who provided matching gifts during 1998.

VOLUNTEERS

Law School alumni have been extraordinarily generous in giving their valuable time to a variety of Law School activities including student recruitment, mock interviews, legal career options day, moot court judging, special advisory boards and governance, appellate advocacy, and more. The Law School expresses its heartfelt gratitude and appreciation to the following alumni, whose thousands of volunteer hours have greatly enriched the Law School's programs and services. (If you have served as an alumni volunteer and your name is not included on this list, please let us know so that we may recognize your contributions in the future.)
