GENERAL INFORMATION

History

Golden Gate College is an affiliate of the Y.M.C.A. and is a non-profit educational institution of collegiate grade. The Law School was established in 1901 as a branch of the Y.M.C.A., and was the first law school in California to offer evening instruction. It was incorporated in 1910, with the right to confer degrees. In 1923 Golden Gate College was established and separately incorporated under its present name. The College is a member of the American Council on Education and is accredited by the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools and by the Western College Association as a specialized institution offering degrees in the fields of Business Administration and related curricula.

The Law School is on the approved list of the American Bar Association and is accredited by the Committee of Bar Examiners of the State of California. Graduates of the school are qualified to apply for admission to practice law in California and in most of the other states. However, a few states have special admission requirements and an applicant intending to practice law in any state other than California should ascertain that state's requirements before commencing the study of law.

Location

The Law School is located at 220 Golden Gate Avenue and is readily accessible to all parts of San Francisco and the Bay Area. The San Francisco Civic Center, the Federal and State Office Buildings, state and federal courts and most governmental agencies are located within a few blocks of the school thus affording unusual opportunities for research and for the observation of law and government in action.

Purpose and Objectives

Experience and the democratic tradition indicate that the evening law school, conforming in all respects to the standards established for approved law schools, is a necessary part of our legal educational system. Such a school exists to provide qualified men and women who must work during the day, with the opportunity to obtain a legal education comparable to that furnished by the day law school, with the only significant departure being in the fact that evening instruction must, of necessity, be spread over a longer period of time than day instruction. Golden Gate College School of Law is dedicated to providing that opportunity to qualified men and women.

The faculty of the school is composed of several full-time professors, who are available for student consultation and assistance at all times, and of practing lawyers teaching subjects for which they are particularly qualified by training and experience.

The course of study is designed to qualify the graduate for practice in any place in the United States, but proceeding on the assumption that most students intend to practice in California, full instruction is given in all significant phases of California law.

Law Library

The law school library is open for student use during the day and evening, including Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. The San Francisco City and County Law Library, located on the fourth floor of the City Hall, the branch county law library located in the Mills Building and, for students residing outside San Francisco, the law libraries of the various bay area counties are open to students in the law school. Students in the law school may also make use of the facilities of the College library.

Tuition and Fees

Tuition is $20.00 per semester unit. The Law School Association fee is $2.50 per semester, except summer. A graduation fee of $20.00 is payable at the beginning of the final semester. Tuition and fees are payable each semester on enrollment; they may be paid in full at that time or they may be paid in four monthly installments. Tuition for courses extending over more than one semester is prorated on a unit basis. A fee of $5.00 is payable on application for admission and a fee of $1.00 is payable each semester at registration.

Fees are not refundable. Tuition accounts of students who withdraw or are dropped during a semester will be adjusted as provided in the General Bulletin of the College.

Veterans

Golden Gate College is approved for training under Public Law 550. It is also approved for California Veteran benefits.

Veterans who have been discharged under conditions other than dishonorable may be eligible for educational benefits. It is recommended that the veteran inquire at the local office of the Veterans Administration or consult the Veterans' Counselor at Golden Gate College regarding specific details of his eligibility.

Veterans must enroll before the end of the second week of the semester to obtain full tuition from the Veterans Administration.

California veterans who are no longer eligible for training under Federal laws may still apply for educational benefits under California Veterans Educational Institute Act.

Auditing of Courses

Members of the Bar of the State of California or of another state, and graduates of approved law schools are permitted to audit courses. The fee for auditing is $20.00 per semester unit.

Books and Supplies

Students must obtain all required case books and texts. In addition, each student must, upon commencing law study, obtain a law dictionary and a set of the basic California Codes. Students who intend to do most of their preparation at home will find it necessary to purchase certain additional texts and other materials to supplement their study. All books can be purchased through the College Bookstore at list prices.

Golden Gate Law School Association

Professional and social activities in the law school are arranged by the officers of a student organization, the Golden Gate Law School Association.

Alumni Advisors

Graduates of the Law School are available in many cities in California to assist and advise persons interested in admission to the School. The name and address of the Alumni Advisor in any area will be furnished on request.

Inquiries and Correspondence

All correspondence, inquiries, requests for information, applications for admission and transcripts or other documents should be addressed: Dean, School of Law, Golden Gate College, 220 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco 2, California.

The College reserves the right to make any changes in regulations, curricula, fees, and other published arrangements as conditions warrant.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

Admission Requirements

1. Requirements for admission—beginning students.

Applicants for admission to regular status. Such applicants must have successfully completed three-fourths of the work acceptable for a bachelor's degree (usually 90 semester units) at an accredited college or university with an average at least equal to the average required for graduation in the institution attended.

Applicants for admission to special status. A limited number of applicants who cannot qualify for admission for regular status, will be considered for admission as special students. Such applicants must be over 23 years of age and must take the Law School Admission Test (see below). No application for admission to special status will be considered until a score report has been received on the Admission Test.

2. Requirements for admission—advanced standing.

All applicants for admission with advanced standing must establish that they are in good standing at the law school last attended and present proof of satisfactory completion of courses for which credit is requested at a law school approved by the American Bar Association. A minimum of two years' attendance is required of all students admitted to advanced standing.

3. All applications for admission are subject to approval by the Dean of the Law School and the Law Faculty Committee on Admissions. Applicants previously disqualified on account of low scholarship in another law school are not admitted.

Admission Procedures

All applicants for admission must file an application for admission on the form provided by the school and, at the time of filing, pay the application fee of $5.00. Application must be sent to or filed with the Dean of the Law School. Applicants who have a bachelor's degree must file transcript from the college conferring the degree; applicants who have done any graduate study must, in addition, file transcripts of all graduate study. Applicants who do not have a bachelor's degree must file transcripts from each college attended. Applicants who have previously attended another law school must also file transcripts from each law school attended and, if the transcripts do not clearly establish that the applicant was in good standing, must procure a certification of good standing from the prior law school. It is the applicant's responsibility to make all arrangements necessary to obtain such transcripts, and the transcripts must be ordered sent directly from the issuing school to the Dean of the Law School.

Application and transcripts must be on file prior to registration. If, for any reason, transcripts cannot be filed prior to registration, request must be made to the Dean for provisional admission and transcripts filed within 20 days thereafter.

Applicants for admission to special status must, in addition to the above, file high school transcript, take the Law School Admission Test (see below) and order a copy of the score report sent to the Law School. Applicants for admission to special status must have application and all supporting transcripts on file before August 10.

Law School Admission Test

The Law School Admission Test, administered by Educational Testing Service (ETS), is designed to measure aptitude for professional law study. It is required of all applicants for admission as special students and it is recommended to all persons contemplating the study of law. Application to take the test and bulletin of information can be obtained from the Law School or from ETS, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey. The test is given four times a year. Test dates announced for 1960 are: February 20, 1960, April 9, 1960 and August 6, 1960; the test is also given in November, usually on the second Saturday. Test centers have been established throughout the United States and elsewhere. In the San Francisco Bay Area all tests are given at the University of California, Berkeley, and at Stanford University. Application to take the test must be on file at Princeton, New Jersey, at least two weeks before the examination date. A fee of $10.00 is payable to ETS for the examination. Applicants should take the earliest possible examination.

COURSE OF STUDY, SCHOLARSHIP, ATTENDANCE AND DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

1. The course of study for the degree of Bachelor of Laws is four years. A student admitted to the Law School is expected to pursue a complete course of study for four consecutive years. Unless prior approval is obtained from the Dean, no student may

(a) carry less than nine or more than ten units in any regular semester, or more than five units in any summer session;

(b) take any course in the Law School, other than the prescribed program for his class and year;

(c) take any course in any other school;

(d) receive credit for any course taken at any other school after admission to the Law School.

2. Requirements for the degree are completion of 84 units of study in accordance with the prescribed curriculum with an average grade of 70 or better, and completion of a course in American History or evidence of satisfactory completion of such a course prior to entering Law School. This last requirement must be satisfied before admission to the fourth year of the Law School.

3. Classes meet three evenings a week, usually Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, from 6:50 to 9:30 p.m. Occasionally, a fourth night is required for a short time during a semester.

The school year consists of two semesters of 17 weeks each and two summer sessions of six weeks each. In order to satisfy the requirements for graduation a student must take at least 12 units of study during the summer sessions. Class sessions falling on school holidays are made up during the semester. Consult the college calendar, page 2, for session dates.

A student may commence the study of law at any session; students entering in the spring semester, will require $4\frac{1}{2}$ years to complete the curriculum.

4. Grades. Grades are issued and recorded in numerical form on a scale ranging from a maximum of 100 to a minimum of 40, with 70 the required average for good standing, advancement and qualification for degree, and 50 the minimum grade for which unit credit for the course will be allowed. A grade below 50 is an F or failure.

In year courses, only one grade is entered for the entire course.

No credit is given for any course in which a final grade of F is received. A student receiving a final grade of F in a course will be permitted to continue in the school only if his average for all courses completed, including the course or courses in which such F grade was received, exceeds the minimum required under paragraph 5. A student so permitted to continue must remove the F grade by taking the next succeeding final examination in the course in which the F grade was received and by attaining a passing grade on that examination. The course grade, after such re-examination, shall be the grade received on re-examination, but not higher than 70.

No course completed in the Law School may be repeated.

5. Requirements for continuance and advancement. An average of 70 or better is required for each year's work, as well as for all work completed, in order to maintain satisfactory status and progress. No student will be permitted to continue in the school after the completion of 54 units of studies, or to enroll for courses the unit value of which would, when added to work already completed, total more than 62 units, unless he has a minimum average of 70. Prior to the completion of 54 units of studies, a student with an average below 70 may be permitted to continue on probationary status, but only if he meets the following minimum standards: upon completion of 18 units of studies, an average of 66.6; upon the completion of 36 units of studies, an average of 68.3.

6. Examinations. A final examination is given in each course; mid-year and other examinations are given when and as the instructor may announce. The extent to which mid-year examination grades, class papers and class work will be considered in determining the final grade is left to the discretion of the instructor in the course. All examinations must be taken on the date scheduled unless, for good cause shown, permission is obtained from the instructor and the Dean to take the examination at some other time. A student failing to take a final examination when scheduled or as so permitted, will receive an F in the course. A student failing to submit any papers required in the course will receive an incomplete in that course. An incomplete must be removed by submitting such work as was, or may be required by the instructor, within two weeks after the close of the course and if not so removed, a grade of F will be entered. A fee of $5.00 is charged for any examination taken on other than the scheduled date and for any re-examination.

7. Attendance, Withdrawals, Leaves of Absence. A student may be dismissed at any time if, in the opinion of the faculty, his attendance at classes is so irregular that there is reason to believe that he is not faithfully and diligently pursuing his studies. Three consecutive absences in any course will be grounds for dropping the student from that course unless leave of absence has been granted. Application for leave of absence should be made to the office of the Dean in advance of any contemplated absence of more than one week. In cases where the absence of a student is due to an emergency which prevented application for leave in advance, notification and request for leave shall be made at the earliest opportunity. A student dropped from more than one course for non-attendance will be dismissed from the school.

A student who, for good cause, is unable to complete a semester or year's work, or is unable, after completion of his course for a semester or a year, to return for the next regular semester, must, in order to retain his right to return, apply for and obtain a leave of absence. A student who withdraws during, or at the end of, any semester, without first obtaining a leave of absence, will be re-admitted only upon application and in the discretion of the faculty. No leave of absence will be granted for longer than one year.

8. A student who, at the time of withdrawal, has not paid in full his current charges for tuition and other fees, cannot be granted an honorable dismissal or statement of work completed until all outstanding charges are paid. Students attending under the G.I. Bill, who withdraw from school during the semester, are required to return their books to the College bookstore.

9. Prizes. The Bancroft-Whitney Company, Bender-Moss and The Recorder Printing and Publishing Company offer annual prize awards to members of the graduating class for scholastic achievement. The Annotated Reports System, published by the Lawyers Co-operative Publishing Co., and Bancroft-Whitney Co., awards selected titles from American Jurisprudence as prizes to students receiving the highest grades in certain courses.

10. State Bar Rules and Regulations. Copies of the Rules Regulating Admission to Practice Law in California are available in the Dean's office.

Registration. Every student must register with the State Bar within three months after beginning the study of law. Registration forms are available in the Dean's office.

First Year Examination. Rule VI, sections 61-64, requires that every person admitted to any law school who had not completed two years of college study (as defined in that Rule) before entering the law school must, upon the completion of his first year of law study, take the first-year law students' examination. This examination is given each year, usually on the last Monday in June. Application must be filed not less than two nor more than six months prior to the examination date. Application forms are available in the Dean's office.

Courses of Instruction

The unit value of each course is indicated by the number in parenthesis after the course title. The semester or semesters in which the course is given are indicated as follows: I, fall semester; II, spring semester; Yr., both fall and spring semesters; SS, summer session. The summer session at the end of the first year is part of the first year curriculum.

Orientation Lectures (no credit) I and II
