GENERAL INFORMATION

P u r p o s e

It is the primary purpose of the Law School of Golden Gate College to prepare the student for the successful practice of the legal profession in any common law jurisdiction. In furtherance of such purpose, instruction is given not only in relation to case law of the past, but with the view of familiarizing the student with the present period of transition of law as it meets the needs of a complex urban civilization.

The study of law is approached from a view point of common interests secured by law and their effective protection by the courts.

Experience as well as democratic principles point the need for the maintenance of the evening law school as an important and necessary part of our system of legal education.. The Law School of Golden Gate College has dedicated itself to the filling of this need, by offering to ambitious men and women a high grade of instruction in the law, through a curriculum carefully prepared to equip them with the knowledge and training necessary for admission to the bar and the successful practice of the profession.

The recent severity of bar examinations in California and other states, and the high scholastic proficiency now required for admission to the bar, have presented a real challenge to all law schools, and particularly to the evening law schools. The Law School of Golden Gate College is resolutely meeting this challenge and has recently taken several important steps to strengthen its course of study. The number of units required for graduation has been increased, standards of scholarship raised, and the most advanced and effective methods of legal pedagogy introduced, with a view toward enabling the graduates of this school to compete on equal terms with those of the day schools under present-day conditions.

In carrying out its primary purpose it is the policy of the law school to give particular attention to developing in its students the ability to analyze a problem in a lawyer-like manner, and the art of accurate and persuasive expression, both written and oral, upon legal matters. Due attention is also given to the economic and sociological problems of our times in their relation to the law, and to the fields of broad and varied cultural knowledge which the study of the law opens up.

History

The law school of Golden Gate College was established in 1901 by the Board of Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association of San Francisco. It was the first law school in California to offer evening instruction. The Honorable James A. Ballentine selected the faculty and served as the first dean of the school from 1901 to 1906. The earthquake and fire of that year destroyed the building housing the college. Classes met wherever a room could be found in the devastated city. In 1909 the present building was constructed.

Golden Gate College was incorporated in 1923 and its Board of Trustees and Board of Governors were granted authority by the State to confer the degree of Bachelor of Laws on students completing the legal curriculum. In 1934 the law school curriculum, teaching methods and standards were reorganized to keep abreast of changing professional requirements and needs. Several outstanding graduates of the University of California, Harvard and Stanford Law Schools have recently been added to the faculty.

Accredited by the State Bar

The Law School of Golden Gate College is accredited by the Committee of Bar Examiners of the California State Bar. Accreditation is based on the percentage of students passing the bar examination within the past three years. 72.7 per cent Golden Gate College students passed within this three year period, Sept. 1938 to Oct. 1940, the highest percentage of any law school in the state offering evening law study only.

Location

Golden Gate College is located on the third and fourth floors of the Central Y.M.C.A. at 220 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco. This central location in the downtown district of the city makes it readily accessible to anyone residing or employed in the bay region.

In the Civic Center, three blocks from the College, are conveniently located the City Law Library, to which the students have access, the State Supreme Court, the District Court of Appeals, and the Municipal and Superior Courts, which afford unusual opportunities for advanced research and observation of trial procedure.

Law Library

The school maintains an adequate library on California Law with the California Reports, Pacific Reporter, California Jurisprudence, McKinney's New California Digest, California Pacific Digest, Shepard's California Citorator, Bancrofts Code Practice and Remedies, and the California Codes and General Laws. In addition, the United States Supreme Court cases, Corpus Juris, Corpus Juris Secundum, Harvard and California Law Review, American State Reports, American Digest System, Northeastern Reporter and standard text books and treaties on law, make up an effective student library.

The extensive facilities of the law library located in the city hall, are available to students for use in research and brief making.

Method of Instruction

The "case" method of study is used. This method is recognized as furnishing the best training for the student in the development of legal reasoning and comprehension of the principles of law. The cases are required to be briefed and presented for discussion and criticism during class. California cases, recent decisions, code study, law review articles and legal treatises are prescribed to parallel and supplement case book assignments.

In the matter of case books used and subjects covered, the examples of the University of California, Stanford, Harvard, Yale and other leading law schools are followed.

It is the belief of the faculty that the best results can be obtained by proper combinations of general and local authorities. While all the courses are based upon case books and text books embodying material taken from many common law jurisdictions, and this general foundation always receives its due and proper emphasis, each course is supplemented with instruction in California case and statutory law.

The work of the faculty is supplemented by occasional lectures on special topics given by judges, public officials and specialists in particular fields.

In the class room the student participates in discussion. Particular emphasis is laid upon careful analysis, logical reasoning and accurate expression.

Classes

Classes meet three evenings each week, from 6:45 to 9:30 p.m., a total of nine class hours of instruction per week.

Length of Course

The course in legal study leading to the LL.B. degree covers a period of approximately four school years. Classes begin in August and January. The College year is divided into two semesters and a summer session; a total of forty-four weeks each year.

There are two vacation periods during the year; two weeks in December and five weeks in August.

Requirements for Admission

REGULAR AND SPECIAL STUDENTS:

Applicants for admission to the law school who are candidates for a degree, must present a certificate of graduation from an accredited high school. In addition, the applicant must file a certificate showing successful completion of at least one-half the work acceptable for a Bachelor's degree granted on the basis of a four year period of study at a recognized college or university. A limited number of students who do not meet this latter requirement but who are of mature age and have had such business experience or other educational background as would, in the opinion of the committee on admissions, compensate for the lack of college credits, may be permitted to enroll as special students in the law school. Their progress through the law school is conditioned upon their scholarship. A special student may petition the faculty for regular standing after two years of satisfactory scholarship and thus become a regular student and a candidate for a degree. At the present time in California an applicant for admission to practice law must have completed at least two years of college work or have reached the age of twenty-five before beginning the study of law.

ADVANCED STANDING:

An applicant seeking advanced standing must present in addition to the entrance credits of high school and college work, a record of his work in another law school together with proof of honorable dismissal therefrom. If work has been pursued in another law school, the student will receive credit for such work only if it is equivalent in the amount and character required in this school.

A minimum of one year of attendance at this law school is required in all cases as a prerequisite to receiving the degree. Applicants may be required to undergo examinations in any of the subjects for which credit is sought.

Registration

Application for admission to the School of Law should be made to the Registrar at least two weeks before the opening of the term. It is recommended that registration be made earlier if possible and that the required books be secured well in advance.

Examinations, Attendance and Grading

One or more preliminary examinations and a final examination are held in each semester course.

Attendance is required in at least eighty per cent of the class periods in each course.

An average grade of C- for the first year's work is required before the student is eligible for advanced work. An averaged grade of C for the first two years work is required for enrollment in the third year. An average grade of C+ in the first three years work is required for enrollment in the fourth year. An average grade of C+ for four years work is required for graduation.

Requirements for Degree

Regular students will be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Laws on the completion of eighty-three units of law study with an average grade of C+ or better.

Requirements for Certificate

Special students will be awarded a certificate of completion upon the successful completion of eighty-one units of law study, with an average grade of C+ or better.

Faculty Reservation

The Law School reserves the right to deny enrollment or continuance in school or to refuse the degree of Bachelor of Laws to any student who, for reasons attributable to character or want of capacity, is not, in the opinion of the faculty, fitted for the study or practice of law.

Tuition Fees

The annual tuition and incidental fees, including library, matriculation, student body and gymnasium will be $148.50. For less than the full course students will be charged at the rate of $8.00 per semester unit of professional law study.

The two plans provided for payment are:

1. Cash in advance at 5% discount, $141.07.
2. The monthly payment plan; $18.50 the first month and ten equal monthly payments of $13.00 each.

Special Examination Fee

A charge of $5.00 will be made for each special or deferred examination. Such examination may be taken only with approval of the instructor.

Scholarships

Several scholarships are available for beginning law students. Application forms may be secured upon request at the college office. Applications must be filed by August 13th. Selections are announced on August 15th.

Book Store

All books may be purchased through the College book store at list prices. Used books are also bought and sold by the book store as needed.

Student Activities

Social activities are arranged by the Student Council in co-operation with the administration. Opportunity is thus afforded to become socially acquainted with the other men and women of the school.

Student Council

The student council is composed of one member elected from each class of the College. The president of the Student Council must be a member of the graduating class. Other officers are elected without reservation. The purpose of the council is to cooperate with the Administration in the promotion of the well-being of the College and its students.

Golden Gate Bar Association

Students automatically upon enrollment in the law school become members of the Golden Gate Bar Association. Each class elects a representative to an executive committee of this organization which arranges for a series of talks to be given during the year by prominent members of the Bench and Bar.

Club Privileges

Enrollment includes full athletic privileges in the half million dollar club that houses the school for a period of four months each year. Special rate to students for balance of year. The equipment includes two gymnasias with running tracks, special exercise room, handball courts, an eighty-five foot salt water swimming pool, social halls, library and game rooms. Towels and a steel locker are furnished, and gymnasium suits laundered as part of the service. The gymnasium is open evenings and Sunday afternoons as well as during the day.

Law Fraternity

KAPPA TAU EPSILON

In 1927 a group of advanced students of the law school organized the law fraternity of Kappa Tau Epsilon. The fraternity is composed of students, alumni and faculty members. Students of scholastic ability and professional interest are elected to membership once a year.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

The curriculum consists of courses which are intended to cover the entire field of law with sufficient comprehensiveness to enable the diligent student to meet successfully the problems of bar examinations in California and elsewhere. The program of instruction is arranged, as far as possible, to present the fundamental, basic courses during the first and second years, and the more advanced and specialized courses during the third and fourth years.
