TRISH NUGENT

CONCERT for CHILD CARE

One thing this school does not have enough of is good social events. Folks get pretty tired of only seeing each other in Civil Procedure or Con Law. But it looks like things will be a bit different this year as the Child Care Committee and the SBA prepare a series of events. The first of these will be the Trish Nugent Concert this Friday night at 8:00 pm which will be a benefit for the child care center (see article).

Nugent is a Bay Area performer who has a growing national following in the women's movement. Locally she has performed at La Peña, Artemis, and the Freight and Salvage. Her album, Foxglove Woman, has recently been released and her music was heard in the movie Word is Out. Her work has appeal for those beyond the women's movement and is noted for its heavy play of harmony. The quality of her sounds aside, she and her cohorts, Robin Flower, Carol Ventrillo, and Judith Hill, are known for putting on a really good concert. (I'm not sure how important this is - file it under trivia perhaps - but Trish and Carol are lawyers as well as musicians. Images of a musical Witkins.)

Tickets are going for $3.50 and raffle tickets for a current B.A.R. outline are going for 25¢ if bought with a concert ticket, $1.00 if purchased alone. Remember, the concert's this Friday at 8:00 in the Auditorium. Appropriately enough, child care will be provided.

{ Tickets are available Dean's office,
9:00 AM to 6:00 PM. }

CHILD CARE AT G.G.U. THE KIDS ARE SERIOUS BUSINESS...

The story goes that four years ago, Holly Baumann -- a GGU law student frustrated by the Administration's hemming and hawing on the issue of child care -- plopped her infant on the desk of the University President, and said "Here. You don't think there's a need for child care at GGU? You watch this kid!" And she stomped off to class.

There appears to be some relationship between that incident and the fact that shortly thereafter the University incorporated a child care center into plans for the new building complex then being conceived.

Putting child care on the agenda at Golden Gate has not been easy, and a viable child care center is far from an accomplished fact. Child care, private or institutional, is expensive. The estimated cost of the program we're planning at GGU is $85,000 for one year; probably the main reason a post-graduate school such as GGU rarely undertakes the creation of a child care program. While the Administration at Golden Gate has gone further than its other institutional counterparts in promoting child care, as recently as last fall a University administrator informed the Child Care Committee that University revenues could not be used to support the Child Care Center, and he objected to the effort by law

PICNIC SUNDAY IN THE PARK

Forget your books and studies for a day and relax in the park at the annual law school picnic, this Sunday, Sept. 24, from 9 am to 5 pm in Golden Gate Park (Marx Meadow).

The picnic is a chance to get together with faculty and other students in a non-pressured situation. The picnic also affords a chance to participate in one of GGULS's cherished traditions: the student-faculty softball game.

Bring yourself, your friends, your children, and one pot-luck vegetarian dish with enough food to serve four people. The SBA will provide drinks and basic picnic food: hot dogs, hamburgers, potato salad, and coleslaw.

The park is easy to get to. See the map below. If you drive, remember that cars are restricted to certain sections of the park on Sundays. Park near Fulton and 25th Aves. Look for picnic signs.

If you take the bus, the 5 Fulton is the best bus to Marx Meadow. If you are confused by the bus schedule, call Muni (673-MUNI) for the best route from your house.

Directions

From the North (Fulton Street): enter park at 25th Ave. Turn right at Marx Drive, picnic at corner of Marx Drive and Kenndey Drive.

From the South (Lincoln Way): enter park at 19th Ave. Go straight to Crossover Drive, turn left at Kenndey Drive.

From the East: take Fulton or Lincoln Way and follow above.

students to involve other schools within the University, such as the Business School, in the child care effort. The same University administrator recommended that a surcharge be levied upon law students -- and only law students -- as a way of financing the Center; emphatically stated that an infant program was out of the question; and, opposed the Committee's idea of surveying the University community to determine the extent of support for the Center.

The Administration has since reversed itself on most of these issues, due to the efforts of the Child Care Committee and the popular support shown for child care throughout the Law School community, in response to a survey which was ultimately conducted. Today, the University has given its "firm assurance" that (1) the Child Care Center will include an infant program; (2) that the University supports hiring a paid, professional staff for the Center; and (3) that the Center will provide night and weekend service.

But while the survey achieved the first step in setting up a child care program, i.e., demonstrating that the issue of child care enjoys a wide base of support, the bottom line is this: unless we, as a joined force of students, staff, and faculty, ACTIVELY commit ourselves, there won't be a Child Care Center next year.

It's fashionable to talk about the need for more women in law school. But, affirmative action is not merely a matter of admitting women to law school. It also involves supporting those women -- as well as men who are students and trying to raise children at the same time -- within the educational context, by providing programs such as child care.

How can you give your active support? (I thought you'd never ask...)

First, you can JOIN the Child Care Committee.

Second, you can VOICE YOUR SUPPORT.

- Inform Dean McKelvey and John Teitscheid, University Vice-president, that you favor the University committing money for the first year of the Child Care Program, so that we can attract the competent staff a quality child care program requires;
- Communicate with your SBA representatives. Let them know you support donating student funds to help pay a Child Care Coordinator for the next two months.

Third, CONTRIBUTE YOUR SPARE CHANGE.

- Treat yourself and support child care at the same time by buying a ticket to the Trish Nugent concert, a major child care fundraising event happening this Friday night.
- Buy a BAR raffle ticket. BAR has generously donated a course outline and an outline for Professional Responsibility. Total value: $130! The cost of a raffle ticket is only 25¢ if you buy it in conjunction with a ticket to the concert; or, $1.00 for the raffle ticket alone.

Particularly if you're a parent of an infant or pre-schooler, it is essential that you get involved! We're talking about the big time, not some fly-by-night operation. Our meetings are on Fridays at noon (watch the Child Care bulletin board on the second floor for location). We welcome any amount of energy you can give; recognizing that no law student, especially a parent, has energy to spare.

Pat Warner

Notes on the SBA Meeting, Thursday, 9/14:

It has happened before, and it will happen again. But, just because something is common doesn't mean it's right. What I'm talking about is the lack of student responsibility with respect to student government.

Last Thursday, the SBA had a special meeting to adopt procedures for budget allocation. Only seven members of the Executive Board showed up. The point was raised that this was insufficient for a quorum. It is rumored, for noone had a copy of the document handy (isn't that hearsay?), that for "important matters", a majority of the Board must be present. However, for matters that are not "important", only one third of the members need to be present. A constitutional issue worthy of the likes of J. Marshall.

It was decided--well really nothing was decided--that the matter of budget procedures was "important." The meeting was promptly adjourned. For those contemplating involvement (obviously, this includes some who have already been elected/selected to the executive board), it is true: student government can be a real waste of time.

EDITORS:

A slight correction concerning a note in the September 5 issue of the CAVEAT is in order. Due to an internal misunderstanding at Golden Gate's Law Review the CAVEAT ran a notice that the Survey issue of the Law Review would be accepting manuscripts from non-law review persons. This is not the case.

The Women's issue will be accepting such manuscripts, but the Survey will not. It is, however, an idea that has been strongly suggested by myself--but actualization of such a policy is wrought with practical difficulties that have not yet been worked out by the Survey staff. It is our hope that such an idea will be implemented for next year's review; however, that idea still remains tentative.

1st YEAR ELECTION

1ST YEAR NIGHT ELECTION RESULTS:

* Colleen Hoy	28	Winner
Dennis Leming	14	Run-off
Steve Runchey	13	Run-off
Total Votes	55

Colleen Hoy was the only candidate to receive a majority of the votes case. She is elected, but the 1st year night class needs 2 representatives. Therefore, it is necessary to have a runoff between Dennis Leming and Steven Runchey for the 2nd rep position. This time there will be a guaranteed winner since you can only vote for one candidate. RUN-OFF ELECTION WILL BE THIS WED., 9-20 before class and during break. It is important that everyone vote. Candidates statements are printed below to help you decide who to vote for.

STEVEN RUNCHEY

Are you a Night Law Student? If so, please consider the following:

ISSUE: Who will I select to represent me in the Student Bar Association?

RULE: Selection of a candidate should be based upon what that candidate will do if elected.

ANALYSIS: Assuming Steven Runchey is elected, what will he do? First, he will be available before and after class Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday for questions concerning the latest developments in the Student Bar Association. Second, he will post a blank topic sheet for signatures outside room 205 concerning Saturday meetings with Professor Rosenak in Contracts. Finally, he will seek new and better ways to serve you and your interest as night students. On the other hand, assuming Steven Runchey is not elected, he will not perform any of the above functions.

CONCLUSION: Vote Steven Runchey for first year representative of our night class.

NOTE: I will truly appreciate your vote.

Dennis Leming

I would like to thank those students who voted for me in the last elections, and remind you that we are beginning our fifth week at GGU with only one of the two required SBA representatives.

In my initial statement I told you I felt qualified to deal with bureaucracy. In light of Colleen Hoy's victory it seems pertinent to include that I also feel qualified to work with a woman. I've been married to one for ten years.

For those students who have not voted, for whatever reason, now is your chance to support a candidate and end this marathon election.

Congratulations Colleen- I look forward to working with you.

The National Direct Student Loan Checks for fall semester, 1978, are now available at the cashier's window. The checks can be claimed between 9 a.m. and 6 p.m., Monday through Friday. All the recipients are required to come in and sign a promissory note even if they want their loan checks to be applied toward their fall semester tuition.

The deadline date to claim checks has been extended from September 15 to September 22. Please be sure to claim your check by September 22.

FOX'S DELI

Paul and Bella Fox, the friendly proprietors of the famous Fox's Delicatessen, announce that beginning Tuesday September 19, they will be in their new and spacious location on the northwest corner of 2nd and Howard.

They have promised that the wonderful smells, and delicious food will be just as plentiful in their new home, as in their old, familiar home. Just mention that you're from GGU Law School, and watch the size of your pastrami, brisket or chopped liver sandwich grow. Additionally, beer and wine will be served. See you there, Enjoy!!

P.S. Paul Fox is looking for a student to work part time, 10-12 daily; wages include all the food you can eat: See Ricky Rosen or Paul Fox.

(Ed. Note: The preceding is a paid announcement.)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PHI ALPHA DELTA SCHEDULES A LARGE SLATE
OF EVENTS AND PROGRAMS

LESBIANS IN LAW: Wine and cheese get-together for new members Tuesday, September 19, at 7 p.m., 352 Coleridge, San Francisco. Call 441-2618 or 863-3622 for directions.

CHILD CARE: The next Committee meeting will be Friday, September 22, at noon in room 209.

The Child Care Committee is in need of a treasurer, preferably someone who already has business experience. The treasurer would handle finances for the Committee until the Child Care Center opens, and would work closely with the University Accounting Office.

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD, GOLDEN GATE CHAPTER: A general meeting will be held Thursday, September 21, at noon, room 209.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the focus of the chapter and to set up organizational forms to carry out our objectives.

Suggestions are needed for what those objectives should be for the year. We will set up organizational committees and will ask for volunteers to work on those committees.

Come and share your views on how our limited resources should be spent.

PLACEMENT CENTER: The meeting for law students interested in learning Spanish has been rescheduled for Tuesday, September 19, at noon in the Placement Center.

Sign-up sheets for September interviews are now posted on Laura's office door. Please note that you must submit your resume to Laura in advance of the interview date.

On the subject of resumes, Laura will be holding a resume workshop sometime in the next two weeks. Look for an announcement in the CAVEAT.

WOMAN'S ASSOCIATION: There will be a meeting on Tuesday, September 19, at 12:00 PM, in Room 205. The majority of the meeting will be spent discussing the budget for this school year.

ID CARDS: Please pick up your validated cards in the Dean's Office this week.

PHI ALPHA DELTA's preliminary activity, a party hosted by Michael Pitts in Mill Valley, was well attended by over a hundred students and illustrious members of the faculty. Last Saturday, in conjunction with the state bar convention, the alumni chapters of practicing attorneys from Los Angeles and San Francisco held a reception in the Borgia Room at the St. Francis Hotel. The turnout was much larger than expected and the alumni were avidly interested in what the Bay Area student chapters were planning to do for the fall. Many voiced their willingness to get this year's Big Brother - Big Sister program under way as soon as possible. The students at the function received candid and informative comments from the alumni on the agenda of the convention. In response to the alumni's inquiries the officers of the local student chapters informed them of our Bay Area Chapters Picnic which was held at McNear's Beach in Marin this past Sunday. Students came from Boalt, Hastings, Santa Clara, and USF, as well as Golden Gate. The Golden Gate officer at the reception elaborated on a list of activities which was subsequently discussed at the bi-weekly meeting that was held last Tuesday afternoon.

At the Tuesday meeting, the first item raised was the Bake Sale which had just been held. It proved to be a remarkably successful fundraising project in the daytime, and the consensus of the group was to hold another sale at night in the near future. The next item addressed was the formation of a committee to plan the Speaker's Forum to be held this semester. The committee is now in the process of arranging for a panel of speakers from the local Bar and Bench to present its views on some current legal issues worthy of our attention. Third on the agenda was the appointment of a member to investigate the possibility of organizing a "police ride-a-long" project with the San Francisco Police Department. The fourth item of business was the on-going process of updating our current list of "big brothers and big sisters in the law" from which the members will be able to select local lawyers for consultations and informal visits throughout the school year. Lastly, a group of new members volunteered to plan a "Bay Cruise Bash" on a bay ferry with a good band, possibly with the support and participation of the other local Bay Area chapters.

Before adjourning the meeting, Bill Klein broke the group that PAD has negotiated a contract with Gilbert's Law Summaries to purchase their materials at a 20% discount for PAD members.

LETTERS

Dear Judith P.,

I publicly apologize for any wrongs I've done you or your acquaintances. Law school has its effects on everybody, myself included, although it's not totally to blame. I blame myself for not controlling its effects or my own predilections.

Perhaps Aristide and friend Henry Monfa were correct in last week's CAVEAT. Celibacy may be the only answer for us at. If so, my obedience is assured.

I'll regretfully have to put all of my personal relationships on "hold" as will several other law students.

I'll be damned if I do!

I believe in the importance of FRIENDS! What the hell would we do without them?

Law Students Unite! Don't submerge your individuality. It's something you need and will be sorely missed if you lose it. You should continue to associate with friends and participate in groups.

There's no need for isolation. YOU must learn to take your opportunities when they come along. I assure you they aren't always there when you need them.

If nothing else law school should teach you how to deal with people, not to "cringe" in abject fear every time a law professor calls on you. If you don't learn how to deal with people or make friends now, how do you expect to do it once you graduate?

So friend Judy, I will continue to be your friend and I hope we will continue to be FRIENDS, despite law school!

LOVE,

JEL

The Law Review staff announces the publication this week of Issue #3, Volume 7, of the Golden Gate University Law Review. This "Notes & Comments" issue contains the following:

An article by Professor Janice Kosel on Municipal Debt Limitation in California; Comments by Michael Marowitz on the Berkeley Rent Control decision (Birkenfeld), and Benita Ventresca on ALRB v. Superior Court (access to the fields for organizing); and Notes by Meredith Lenell on the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (a review after 10 years), and Robert Wagman on protecting solar access.

Subscribers will receive their copy in the mail. Individual purchases for non-subscribers are available in the Book Store for $5.50 plus tax.

PREZ'S CORNER

SBA STUDY AID BOOKSALE: Because so many students expressed an interest in a study aid booksale which would be held after they had attended classes for awhile and had a better idea what study aids they would use, we will have a sale this Thurs, 9-21, from noon to 6:30 p.m. in room 304. Students who wish to sell books should bring them to the SBA office WED. 9-20 during the hours of 9-1:30 p.m., 2:45-4:45, and 6:00-6:50 p.m. WE WILL NOT ACCEPT BOOKS FOR SALE THAT ARE BROUGHT TO THE SALE ON THURS. THOSE STUDENTS WHO STILL HAVE STUDY AIDS THAT THEY HAVE NOT PICKED UP FROM THE EARLIER BOOKSALE MUST CONTACT ME BEFORE 10:30 a.m. Thurs., 9-21 OR THEIR STUDY AIDS WILL BECOME THE PROPERTY OF THE SBA AND WE WILL SELL THE BOOKS AT THE SALE AND KEEP THE PROFITS. Only Study Aids will be accepted for sale on Thurs. If you have any questions, call me at 863-7880.

ATTENTION ALL SBA OFFICERS AND REPS: The AALS team may want to meet with us today or Tuesday when they are here for inspection of GGU. If they want to meet with us we may have to convene a meeting on only a couple hours notice. Please leave a note in the SBA box immediately with your class and work schedule for those 2 days or where you will be during 9-5 so I can contact you should we have to call a meeting. I will also put a bright red (I know red is corny!) sign on the vending machines with the meeting time if it's called also so keep an eye out for it.

YMCA PASSES: I received a call from Vicki Gilchrist, the woman at the Y with which we have been dealing. She said the Director had decided that he wanted to present our request to the Executive Committee of the Y for approval (the next highest committee above the Membership Comm. which approved our request on Tues.). They want to do this to avoid any hassles among their governing body. The meeting is this Thurs. 9-21. She will call me and let me know what happens. She doesn't foresee problems. I am currently talking to a number of places in the building to work out where the Y passes can be picked up. Last year the passes cost $25 a pass for approx. 6 months. This year they are costing $35 a pass for 3 months. Only $164 was received from check-off for the Y passes. Because of this some reps at the SBA meeting on Tues. suggested charging $1.00 for the use of the passes when they are checked out. This will be discussed further after we have a place to keep the passes. It was also suggested that we check out the Y in Chinatown or by the Civic Center for spring semester to see if we could get a better deal or in case the present Y doesn't grant us passes for spring semester. Students are encouraged to let their representatives know what they think of the $1 charge and the idea of getting passes at some other Y further away.

BOOKSALE: THE FOLLOWING PEOPLE STILL HAVE NOT PICKED UP THEIR BOOKS FROM THE BOOKSALE. IF YOU DON'T PICK THEM UP BY THIS THURSDAY, 9-21, 10:30 a.m. THEY WILL BECOME THE PROPERTY OF THE SBA. If you want to donate your books or you think your name shouldn't be on the list, please call me immediately (863-7880) or leave your name and number in the SBA box. Books can be picked up at the SBA office on the mezzanine. Here's the list:

Leon Atlas	O.S. Thomas
Beesley	Robert Wolfson
C.S. Baker	Bill Westover
Vivian Beckew	Thellen Levy
Carol Boes	Janice Lapidis
Charles Herrington	Peter Marana
Liz Hendrickson	Michael McCann
Kristina Hansson	Allen Ruskin
Robert Isherwood	Barbara Rudquist
Thomas Jacobson	Michael Waughtel
Wendy Roudier	Carol Yaggy
Bonnie Solow
Jonathon Steinman	NAMES ARE NOT IN ALPHABET-
Deborah Sobel	ICAL ORDER

If you still have not received a check and have picked up your books or you have a question about your check, please leave your name and number in the SBA box and Ralph Eliseo the SBA Treasurer will check and find out what's happening.

9-12 and 9-14 SBA MEETINGS: At the 9-12 meeting we allocated the balance of the funds that were needed to purchase 20 passes (a motion to purchase 25 was defeated). We also approved payment to the people who worked on the booksale. Ralph Eliseo was given a special thanks for all the hours he put in on getting the checks out. (I would also like to thank Sheila Gaughan for all the work she did also.) Discussion was started on the proposed budget allocation procedures. Until now the SBA has allocated money to various student groups on an annual basis with a somewhat cursory review. No set standards for budget allocation have ever been adopted. Money is also allocated periodically throughout the year for expenses that come up, usually ex post facto. Many representatives feel the budget process should be tightened up. Since we did not formalize the budget procedures on 9-12 a meeting was scheduled for Thurs, 9-14 to finalize them. Only 7 SBA members were in attendance at the 9-14 meeting and the 2 people who had written up the proposed procedures were not there. Some members did not feel comfortable finalizing the procedures without the 2 members who had written up the procedures being there, some members were angry that more members did not show up, and some felt the procedures should be designated an important question which would require 10 members to be present to constitute a quorum. Various motions were offered around this issue (all unsuccessful) and it was decided we would take the budget procedures up again on Tues. 9-19 at 5 p.m. in room 209. (Note: The Caveat Editor is right-we should have had a copy of the Constitution at the meeting. At all future meetings I will make sure I is there.)

NEXT SBA MEETING: TUESDAY, 9-19, 5:00 p.m., room 209. IT IS IMPORTANT THAT ALL SBA OFFICERS AND REPS ATTEND SO THAT WE CAN FINALIZE THE BUDGET ALLOCATION PROCEDURES. STUDENTS AND ORGANIZATION REPS ARE ALSO WELCOME TO ATTEND.
