General Information

Initiative and Referendum
Qualification Requirements for November 2016 and November 2018 General Elections

Initiative

The initiative process is the power of the people to place laws and constitutional amendments on the ballot. These measures can either create or change laws (including general obligation bonds) or amend the California Constitution. If the initiative proposes to create or change California law, the proponent(s) must gather petition signatures of registered voters equal to 5% of the total votes cast for Governor in the most recent gubernatorial election. If the initiative proposes to amend the California Constitution, the signature requirement is 8% of the total votes cast for Governor in the most recent gubernatorial election. A qualified initiative is placed on the ballot for a regularly scheduled statewide general election that occurs at least 131 days after the measure qualifies or for a special election called by the Governor.

To be enacted, an initiative measure requires a simple majority of the total votes cast. A “yes” vote approves and a “no” vote rejects a proposed law or constitutional amendment placed on the ballot through the initiative process.

Based on the number of votes cast for the office of Governor at the 2014 General Election, number of signatures required for:

Initiative Statute: 365,880 (5% of 7,317,581) Cal. Const., art. II, § 8(b); § 9035

Initiative Constitutional Amendment: 585,407 (8% of 7,317,581) Cal. Const., art. II, § 8(b)

Referendum

The referendum process is the power of the people to approve or reject laws already adopted by the Legislature. However, this does not apply to laws that have urgency clauses, call for elections, or provide for tax levies or appropriations for current expenses of the state. Proponent(s) wishing to prevent a legislatively adopted law from taking effect must, within 90 days of enactment of the legislation, gather signatures of registered voters equal to 5% of the total votes cast for Governor in the most recent gubernatorial election. A qualified referendum is placed on the ballot for a regularly scheduled statewide general election that occurs at least 31 days after the measure qualifies or for a special election called by the Governor.

A “yes” vote approves a law previously adopted by the Legislature and allows it to take effect. A “no” vote rejects the law previously adopted by the Legislature and prevents it from taking effect.

Based on the number of votes cast for the office of Governor at the 2014 General Election, number of signatures required for:

Referendum Measure: 365,880 (5% of 7,317,581) Cal. Const., art. II, § 9(b)

For additional information regarding the initiative and referendum process, please visit the Secretary of State’s website at <http://www.sos.ca.gov/elections/ballot-measures/how-qualify-initiative/> or <http://www.sos.ca.gov/elections/ballot-measures/referendum/>.

Nomination Documents — Nomination Papers and Declaration of Candidacy

All candidates for offices at the primary election must obtain nomination documents from the county elections official of the candidate's county of residence. Nomination documents include nomination papers for collecting signatures and a Declaration of Candidacy that must be executed by the candidate. The nomination documents are made available on February 15, 2016* (E-113), and are provided free of charge.

§§ 333, 8020, 8040, 8041, 8064, 8101

No person may file nomination papers for more than one office at the same election. Between February 15, 2016* (E-113), and March 11, 2016 (E-88), nomination papers must be delivered to the county elections official of the county in which the signer resides and is a voter.

§§ 8003(b), 8020, 8063

The Declaration of Candidacy must be delivered to the county elections official of the candidate's county of residence by March 11, 2016 (E-88). However, a candidate running for the office of U.S. Representative in Congress, who does not reside in the district where seeking office, can obtain the Declaration of Candidacy from and deliver it to the county elections official in any county within the district where the candidate is seeking office.

§§ 8040, 8064

The county elections official shall require all candidates filing a Declaration of Candidacy to execute the declaration in his or her office unless the candidate, in a written statement signed and dated by the candidate, designates a third party to obtain the declaration form from the county elections official and to deliver it to the candidate. The written statement shall state that the candidate is aware that the Declaration of Candidacy must be properly executed and delivered not later than March 11, 2016 (E-88), to the office of the county elections official from whom it was received. Any person may return the completed Declaration of Candidacy.

§§ 8020, 8028, 8064

The county elections official shall forward all nomination documents to the Secretary of State for filing within five days after being left with the county elections official.

§§ 8063, 8064, 8070, 8082

Signatures In Lieu of Filing Fee

The county elections official shall provide the petitions in lieu of filing fee to a candidate, upon request. The petitions shall first be made available on January 1, 2016* (E-158).

§ 8106(b)

A candidate may submit a petition containing signatures of registered voters in lieu of paying the filing fee in order to run for office. The signatures submitted may cover all or any prorated portion of the filing fee. Any registered voter may sign a petition in lieu of filing fee for any candidate for whom he or she is eligible to vote. § 8106

The last day to submit the petition in lieu of filing fee to the elections official of the county in which the signatures were gathered is February 25, 2016 (E-103). The petitions cannot be filed at the Secretary of State's office. No additional signatures may be filed after the filing date, but supplemental signatures may be filed to replace signatures in the original filing that were found to be invalid. That portion of the filing fee not covered by the signatures must be paid in full before the nomination documents may be filed. § 8106(b)

Signatures In Lieu of Filing Fee and/or Nomination Papers

A candidate who submits signatures on petitions in lieu of filing fee may request that the county elections official count all valid signatures appearing on the petition toward, and combine them with, the number of sponsor signatures required for the candidate's nomination papers. If the petition contains the requisite number of valid signatures required for the nomination papers, the candidate is not required to circulate and file nomination papers, but may request the county elections official to accept the petition in lieu of filing fee as nomination papers. If the petition does not contain the requisite number of valid signatures required for the nomination papers, the candidate may still circulate and file nomination papers during the nomination period. The in-lieu-filing-fee petitions and nomination papers are separate forms that are issued by the county elections official. The nomination papers shall be delivered to the county elections official of the county in which the signer resides and is a voter. §§ 8061, 8106

NOTE: If the candidate has submitted sufficient valid signatures on in-lieu-filing-fee petitions to satisfy the nomination requirement, he or she must still file a Declaration of Candidacy during the nomination period. § 8020(a)(1)

Ballot Designations

Each candidate who submits a Declaration of Candidacy with a ballot designation shall file a completed ballot designation worksheet that supports the use of the ballot designation by the candidate. The ballot designation worksheet shall be filed with the elections official at the same time that the candidate files his or her Declaration of Candidacy. § 13107.3

The ballot designation shall remain the same for all purposes of both primary and general elections, unless the candidate, at least 98 days prior to the general election, requests in writing a different designation which the candidate is entitled to use at the time of the request. The written request must be accompanied by a ballot designation worksheet. § 13107(e)

In General

All forms required for nomination and election to statewide, congressional, and legislative offices (declaration of candidacy, nomination papers, ballot designation worksheet) shall be furnished by the county elections official of the candidate's county of residence.

At the time of issuing any candidate forms, the officer providing the form shall:

- Type on the form the name of the candidate and the office for which he or she is a candidate,

Electors and the Electoral College

Electors and the Electoral College
November 8, 2016, General Election

Electors

Presidential Electors are the 55 individuals from California who are entitled to vote in the Electoral College. The number of electors is based on each state's total representation in Congress: California's two United States Senators and 53 United States Representatives in Congress. Each qualified political party chooses its electors in a manner provided by statute.

A. Democratic Party: The candidate in each congressional district who received the largest number of votes in the primary election among the candidates who disclosed a preference for the Democratic Party shall designate one presidential elector and shall file his or her name and residence and business address with the state chairperson. The candidate for United States Senate who received the largest number of votes in the primary election among the candidates who disclosed a preference for the Democratic Party in each of the last two United States senatorial elections shall designate one presidential elector and shall file his or her name and residence and business address with the state chairperson. If there is no candidate for United States Senate or for any particular congressional district who disclosed a preference for the Democratic Party, or if any candidate fails to designate an elector, the state Democratic chair shall designate one elector for each vacancy. The state chairperson shall file the names and residence and business addresses of all the electors with the Secretary of State by October 1, 2016 (E-38). § 7100

B. Republican Party: Republican nominees for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Treasurer, Controller, Attorney General, Secretary of State, United States Senator at the last two elections, Assembly Republican leader, Senate Republican leader, all elected officers of the Republican State Central Committee, National Committeemen/women, President of the Republican County Central Committee Chairmen's Association, and chair or president of each Republican volunteer organization officially recognized by the Republican State Central Committee shall be electors. Any additional vacancies shall be filled by appointment of the chair of the Republican State Central Committee according to Republican State Central Committee bylaws. The Republican State Central Committee Chair must file the list, containing the name, residence address, and business address of each appointee, with the Secretary of State by October 1, 2016 (E-38). § 7300

C. American Independent Party: The state convention nominates electors and the state chair certifies their names and residence addresses to the Secretary of State. § 7578

D. Green Party¹: The party nominates electors, 50% of whom shall be women and 50% shall be men. The party liaison certifies their names and residence addresses to the Secretary of State. § 6864

E. Libertarian², and Peace and Freedom Parties: The state convention nominates electors, 50% of whom shall be women and 50% shall be men. The party chair certifies their names and residence addresses to the Secretary of State. § 7843

United States Senators and United States Representatives in Congress, and persons holding an office of trust or profit of the United States, shall not be electors.

U.S. Const., art. II, § 1, cl. 2.

The lists of electors must be filed with the Secretary of State by the Democratic and Republican Parties by October 1, 2016 (E-38) and the remaining parties by October 3, 2016 (E-36). The Secretary of State then notifies each elector of his or her nomination.

§§ 6864, 6901, 7100, 7300, 7578, 7843

At the general election in each leap year, there shall be chosen by the voters of the state as many electors of President and Vice President of the United States as the state is then entitled to. § 6902

No later than December 10, 2016* (E+32), the Secretary of State analyzes the votes given for presidential electors and certifies the names of the proper number of persons having the highest number of votes to the Governor. Thereafter, the Secretary of State issues certificates of election to the electors, along with a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Electoral College and a statement that they are entitled to per diem allowance and mileage, in the amounts specified. § 15505

The Electoral College

The electors pledged to the presidential slate that wins the popular vote in California in November convene at the State Capitol at 2:00 p.m. on December 19, 2016 (E+41), the first Monday after the second Wednesday in December following the election.

U.S. Const., 12th Amend.; § 6904

The Governor convenes the Electoral College. The electors cast separate ballots for President and Vice President; they then sign, certify, seal, and deliver the results of each ballot to the Governor, who transmits the vote results to the President of the United States Senate.

Congressional Role

On January 2, 2017 (E+55), the first Monday in January, the President of the Senate, in a joint session of the United States Senators and United States Representatives in Congress, opens and reads the ballots from the 50 states and the District of Columbia. They appoint tellers who identify and count the results, announcing states in alphabetical order. The candidate for President who receives the majority of the 538 votes of the Electoral College is declared elected President, with a similar procedure for election of Vice President. If no candidate receives the simple majority vote of the Electoral College, the decision moves to the newly-elected United States Representatives in Congress for the United States President and the United States Senate for the United States Vice President.

U.S. Const., 12th Amend.

SECTION 9

Political Party Information

Political Party Qualification
Process, Requirements, and History
June 7, 2016, Presidential Primary Election
November 8, 2016, General Election

The method by which political parties gain, and retain, qualified status in California is prescribed in Elections Code sections 5000-5200.

In order to achieve initial qualified status, thereby allowing a political party to participate in the next primary election or the next presidential general election, a proposed political party must:

1. Hold a caucus or convention to elect temporary officers and designate a party name; § 5001(a)
 2. File a formal notice with the Secretary of State that the political body has organized, elected temporary officers, and declared an intent to qualify as a political party pursuant to either Elections Code section 5100 or 5151, but not both. This notice must include the names and addresses of the temporary officers of the political body; § 5001(b)
- and
3. Use one of two methods to qualify as a political party: voter registration or petition.

§§ 5100, 5151

Voter Registration

To qualify a new political party by voter registration requires that voters equal in number to at least 0.33 percent of the total number of voters registered on January 5, 2016 (if intending to qualify to participate in the Presidential Primary Election) or on July 8, 2016 (if intending to qualify to participate in the General Election) complete an affidavit of registration, disclosing a political preference by writing in the name of the political body intending to qualify as a political party.

§§ 5100(b), 5151(c)

These completed affidavits of registration must be submitted to the county elections officials by January 5, 2016 (if intending to qualify to participate in the Presidential Primary Election) or by July 8, 2016 (if intending to qualify to participate in the General Election). The completed affidavits of registration should be submitted to the elections official in the counties of the voters' residences. They may be submitted to the Secretary of State's office, although this will result in delays in the counties' receipt of the affidavits.

Presidential Primary Election: § 2187(d)(1)

General Election: § 2187(c)(4)¹

The Secretary of State must determine, from examining and totaling the reports of registration from the counties, that the political body obtained voter registrations equal in number to at least 0.33 percent of the total number of voters registered on January 5, 2016 (the 154th day before the Presidential Primary Election) or July 8, 2016 (the 123rd day before the General Election).

§§ 5100(b), 5151(c)

Petition

To qualify a new political party by petition, petitions must be submitted to the Secretary of State no later than January 24, 2016 (the 135th day before the Presidential Primary Election) or June 26, 2016 (the 135th day before the General Election). The Secretary of State must determine if a political body intending to qualify collected 751,398 (10% of 7,513,972 votes cast at the last gubernatorial election) petition signatures of registered voters.

§§ 5100(c), 5151(d)

In order for the Secretary of State to make this determination, the counties must have ample time to count and verify the signatures.

Presidential Primary Election: § 2187(d)(1)

General Election: § 2187(c)(4)

Once qualified, a political party maintains its qualified status by:

1. Retaining registrants representing at least 1/15 of 1% (.00067%) of the total state registration;
§§ 5101, 5153

and

2. Having one of its statewide candidates (running for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Controller, Treasurer, Attorney General, Insurance Commissioner, or United States Senator) receive at least 2% of the entire vote of the state for that office at the last gubernatorial primary election; §§ 5100(a), 5151(b)

or

Retaining statewide registration equaling at least 0.33 percent of the total number of voters registered on the 154th day before the primary election or the 123rd day before the presidential general election.

§§ 5100(b), 5151(c)

For additional information regarding political party qualification, please visit the Secretary of State's website at <http://www.sos.ca.gov/elections/political-parties/political-party-qualification/>.

There are currently six qualified political parties in California: Democratic, Republican, American Independent, Green, Libertarian, and Peace and Freedom. In addition to the Democratic and Republican parties, which have participated in state primary elections since 1910, seven other parties have qualified since 1967. In 1968, both the American Independent Party and the Peace and Freedom Party qualified by the voter registration method; however, in 1998, the Peace and Freedom Party failed to meet the requirement that one of its candidates receive 2% of the vote for the particular office and therefore lost its qualified status. The Libertarian Party achieved the requisite number of registrants in 1980; the Green Party reached the required number in 1992. In 1995, the Natural Law and the Reform parties garnered the requisite number of registered voters. In 2003, the Peace and Freedom Party regained its qualified status and the Reform Party failed to meet the requirements to retain its qualified status. The Natural Law Party lost its qualified status in 2006. In 2011, the Americans Elect Party qualified using the petition method, but the Americans Elect Party lost its qualified status in 2015.

¹ Assembly Bill (AB) 1020 (Ridley-Thomas), Chapter 728, Statutes of 2015, amends provisions of the Elections Code as they relate to the Report of Registration, among other things. AB 1020 will become operative once the Secretary of State certifies that the state has a statewide voter registration database that complies with the requirements of the Help America Vote Act of 2002 (52 U.S.C. § 20901 et seq.).

 Date falls on a weekend or state holiday; it moves forward to the next business day.

Since the statewide party nomination process began in 1910, 19 parties have qualified to participate in primary elections, including:

* Democratic 1910-present	Townsend 1938-1942
* Republican 1910-present	Independent Progressive 1948-1954
* Independence League 1910	American Independent 1968-present
* Prohibition 1910-1962	Peace and Freedom 1968-1998; 2003-present
* Socialist 1910-1938	Libertarian 1980-present

Commonwealth 1934-1938	Reform 1995-2002
Communist 1934-1944	Americans Elect 2011-2015
Progressive 1934-1938

Prior to 1910, many parties either conducted conventions or held primary elections to select their candidates for the statewide general election.

* Active before 1910
