CALENDAR & DEADLINES NOTES	TUITION & FEES
NOTES ¹ First-Year students register during orientation. ² Courses that start after the first week of the term may be added prior to the second class meeting without the instructor’s approval and without incurring a Late Registration Fee. ³ Students register on or after this date will be charged a Late Registration Fee of $100 in addition to the $40 Registration Fee. ⁴ The petition for an incomplete and election for credit/no credit grading forms must be submitted by the date of the last class meeting of the course for courses that have class meetings, or the last day of instruction for the term for courses for which class meetings are not held, such as independent study courses. However, forms may not be submitted after all work upon which the student will be graded is due. Failure to submit the form by the appropriate date results in an automatic waiver of the right to request an incomplete or elect credit/no credit grading. ⁵ Students who do not fulfill their payment obligation by this date may have their registration canceled. ⁶ Priority Web registration begins at 12:01 in the morning on the date indicated. ⁷ Failure to resolve an incomplete course by this date will cause students’ graduation to be postponed to a future term. ⁸ Exam dates for LLM Tax courses may not fall during the regular exam period. GGU4YOU

All students should ensure they are able to login to GGU4YOU, the university's Web-based student information system at www.ggu.edu. GGU4YOU is used for online registration, to obtain exam numbers and to view class schedules, grades and program evaluations. Students who do not know their user names or passwords should go to www.ggu.edu/law/ggu4you for assistance. Students who still are unable to login should send a message to lawhelp@ggu.edu requesting assistance.

Students are encouraged to utilize GGU4YOU for web registration, but the following transactions cannot be done online and will require submission of a paper form:

- First-year JD students will be assigned to course sections and their registration will be processed by the Registrar's Office for their first fall and spring terms. No form is required. Part-time JD students will be required to use a paper form for registration for their second fall term.
- Students will generally not be able to use Web registration for courses that require the approval of the associate dean, program director or instructor for enrollment.
- Students enrolling in courses for which they have not completed the prerequisites at GGU will require the approval of the instructor or program director and will not be able to use Web registration for that course.
- JD students who need an approved waiver of rules to exceed the maximum units for their program type (16 units for students in full-time programs or 12 units for students in part-time programs) will not be able to enroll online for any units above the limit.

"Express Registration" is a faster way for students to register online than using the "Search and Register" page. Students can use this method if they already know exactly which course sections they want, to quickly add them to their "Preferred Sections List." All course sections available for online registration include an "Xpress ID" number. The numbers are published in the Course Schedule and on the GGU Web site.

Once their registration has been processed, either online or manually, students may view the courses in which they are registered by selecting "My Course Schedule" from the "Student" menu in GGU4YOU.

PRIORITY REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

Priority registration is available to all continuing students. Priority registration for JD students is made available, as indicated in the table below, based on the anticipated graduation date on record with the Registrar's Office when the priorities are assigned. Students are encouraged to utilize Web registration via GGU4YOU at www.ggu.edu during the priority registration periods listed. Web registration will become available to eligible students in each group at 12:01 AM on the date listed.

Group Number	Priority Group Members	Priority registration start date
1	May 2010 and July 2010 JD graduation candidates, all LLM & SJD students	Monday, November 9
2	December 2010 JD graduation candidates	Monday, November 16
3	May 2011 JD graduation candidates	Thursday, November 19
4	All other continuing JD students	Wednesday, November 25

The Law School Registrar's Office staff will process paper registration forms that have been received during the same priority registration periods that Web registration is made available to each group of students. Forms are processed in random order, not in the order received, and forms submitted in person will not be processed before those that are mailed or before online registration. Forms received after the processing period for a student's priority group will be processed during the next period or during General Registration, whichever comes first. Students using paper registration forms should obtain any necessary approvals before submitting the form; not doing so may delay the student's registration.

Statements of Charges will be mailed to all students who register via paper form. Statements are not automatically mailed to students who use Web registration, but are available upon request from the Registrar's and Financial Aid Offices.

GENERAL REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

Processing during General Registration, December 1, 2009–January 8, 2010 is on a first-come, first-served basis. Students are encouraged to utilize Web registration via GGU4YOU at www.ggu.edu if they are not precluded from doing so. After registering for a course, if a student decides not to take it, the student is responsible for dropping the course, with prior approval if approval is required, either by using GGU4YOU or by submitting a Schedule Change Request form to the Law School Registrar's Office.

DEADLINES FOR SCHEDULE CHANGES	January 15, 2010:	to add without the instructor's written approval
	January 25, 2010:	to drop without tuition charge, or "W" grade

Fees are non-refundable on or after the first day of the term, Monday, January 11, 2010.

OFFICE HOURS	Law School Registrar's Office (Room 3310)
	Monday - Thursday, 10:00 AM - 6:30 PM
	Friday, 9:00 AM - 5:30 PM

ALL STUDENTS MUST REGISTER BY 6:30 PM ON MONDAY, JANUARY 25, 2010. STUDENTS WHO DO NOT REGISTER BY THIS DEADLINE MAY BE CHARGED A $100 LATE REGISTRATION FEE.

REGISTRATION - VISITING STUDENTS/AUDITORS

Registration for visiting students, non-degree candidates, and auditors for the spring term is available January 4-8, 2010. Students in these groups are not allowed to use Web registration. Students in these categories, once they are registered, will receive an e-mail providing access information for GGU4YOU, the University's interface to the administrative database, which they can use to view their schedule and grades, obtain their exam ID number or update contact information. For more information, see www.ggu.edu/law/schedules and click on "Registration Instructions."

OBLIGATION FOR PAYMENT

Registration constitutes a financial contract between students and the university. Students' rights to university services and benefits are contingent upon making payments as agreed. Students who fail to make payments when they become due may have their registration canceled, services withheld and may be refused admittance to exams. Also, failure to fulfill payment obligations is reportable to relevant bar admission agencies.

In order to complete registration, law school students must either pay all of tuition and fees within five (5) business days of the start of the term (or at the time of registration if registering after the first week of the term), or select one of the other approved payment options. Information on payment methods can be found online through the law school website or on the back of the Statement of Charges. The payment deadline for the spring 2010 term is Friday, January 15, 2010.

Student Accounting Services (SAS) may place a hold on the records of students whose accounts are not current, and they will not be allowed to register without the authorization of SAS. Holds also may be placed on students' records by other offices such as the Law School Registrar's Office, or International Student Services, if there are issues that must be resolved before registration. If there is a hold on a student's account, that student will not be allowed to register until the office that instituted the hold has removed or waived it.

JD STUDENTS WITH ADVISING REQUIREMENTS

Students who have been informed that they must have their schedules approved prior to registration must follow these steps:

1. Review the semester course schedule and scheduling notes, list of required and recommended courses, and any additional requirements as imposed by the Academic Standards Committee or Law Student Services. Students may confirm their requirements by viewing their program evaluation report. See Academic Program Evaluation Report section, on page 9, for instructions for viewing your report.
2. Make an appointment with the associate dean or director for student services by visiting Law Student Services or calling 442-6615. Please schedule an appointment for at least three school days prior to the start of your priority registration period.
3. Bring two copies of the completed Advising Agreement form to your appointment for approval. Once the form has been approved, the Registrar's Office will be instructed to grant you access to Web registration. Any changes to your schedule will require prior approval.
4. Register for courses online. See the Law School Web Registration Instructions for step-by-step instructions.
5. Failure to enroll in all and only the approved courses will be considered a violation of the Standards of Student Conduct and could be grounds for dismissal and/or may trigger the imposition of late fees.

Students who complete these steps in a timely fashion will maximize their course selection and scheduling options.

JD STUDENT ACADEMIC ADVISING NOTES

Fall 2008 full-time admits (with the exception of students in the HLP program) are required to take Constitutional Law II in the spring 2010 semester. Fall 2008 HLP students are required to take Constitutional Law I in the spring 2010 semester.

Fall 2008 part-time admits are required to take Constitutional Law II and Property II in the spring 2010 semester.

All Fall 2008 admits MUST take Appellate Advocacy in the spring of their second year if they have not taken it already.

Students wanting to deviate from the recommended schedule will need approval from the Director or Associate Dean for Student Services.

JD students who decide not to enroll in the spring 2010 term must complete a Withdrawal from Law School form, or Request for Leave of Absence form. In addition, if they have already registered, they must drop their courses via GGU4YOU or submit a Schedule Change Request form to the Law School Registrar's Office by Monday, January 25, 2010, to withdraw from courses and receive a full refund of tuition charges. Term fees are non-refundable on or after the first day of the term, Monday, January 11.

Upon completion of their first year, students are expected to select their own schedules, and they are encouraged to sign up for an academic advising appointment in Law Student Services to plan their academic careers. Students must complete 88 units to graduate, including 57 required units and 31 elective units. Students are advised to consult the Schedules & Course Descriptions section of the Student Handbook http://www.ggu.edu/school_of_law/law_student_services/student_handbook and this Web page www.ggu.edu/school_of_law/law_records_registration/course_descriptions/jd_required_courses for additional information and assistance.

JD STUDENT EMPLOYMENT LIMITATIONS

ABA Standard 304(f) prohibits JD students from being employed in excess of 20 hours per week during any week in which the student is enrolled in more than 12 semester units. (Hours worked for clinic credit are not counted towards the 20 hours.) The School of Law prohibits first year full-time students from being employed at all. Failure to comply with these requirements may be considered a violation of the Standards of Student Conduct. Full-time upper division students who anticipate that they will be employed more than 20 hours per week during the semester must request a change to the part-time academic program.

WAIVER OF JD PROGRAM RULES

All JD students are enrolled in either a "full-time" or "part-time" academic program. Full-time students may enroll in a maximum of 16 units per fall or spring semester, as long as they comply with the ABA employment limitations set forth in ABA Standard 304(f) as described in the previous section. Part-time students may enroll in a maximum of 12 units per fall or spring semester. Students in both types of programs may enroll in a maximum of 8 units in the summer session, except for students studying abroad and those in the Honors Lawyering Program. Students who want to enroll in overload units for their program types must first complete a Petition for Waiver of JD Program Rules form and submit it to the director for student services for approval. Registration for overload units will not be processed unless the approved petition form is on file with the Law School Registrar's Office. Students requiring a waiver of rules may not register for overload units online via GGU4YOU. Please note that these enrollment maximums do not relate to the requirements for eligibility for financial aid or VA benefits. Financial aid and VA benefit eligibility is based on students' term enrollment status classifications, not their program types.

WAIT-LIST INFORMATION

When a course section is full, students who request enrollment may be wait-listed for that section. Students who are on a wait-list are not enrolled in the course and are not charged for it until or unless a seat becomes available and they add the course.

Wait-listed students will be notified by e-mail if a seat in the course section becomes available before the first day of instruction for the term. This message will be sent to the e-mail address on file with the Registrar's Office. Because there may be other students eager to enroll, a time limit will be set for the notified student to add the course. Students who are notified there is a seat available may add the course via GGU4YOU if they have no restrictions that would prevent them from doing so, or they may submit a Schedule Change Request form to the Law School Registrar's Office. If a student does not add the course by the deadline given, their permission to enroll will expire and they will be removed from the wait-list.

Once instruction for the term has begun, the wait-list no longer applies and students may enroll in a wait-listed course only with the instructor's approval.

It is recommended that wait-listed students attend the first class meeting and bring a Schedule Change Request form. Some instructors will not accept students who have missed the first class meeting without an excused absence. Sometimes instructors will allow wait-listed students to enroll if there are additional seats available in the classroom, but the capacity of some sections is limited by other considerations. If the instructor will sign a student's Schedule Change Request form, and there is space in the classroom, the student may be enrolled in the course section regardless of the student's wait-list status.

Students who are wait-listed for a course and have decided not to enroll in it should remove themselves from the wait-list online or by notifying the Law School Registrar's Office as soon as possible at lawreg@ggu.edu.

ENROLLMENT STATUS CLASSIFICATIONS FOR FINANCIAL AID PURPOSES

The Law School classifies students' enrollment status based academic level and the number of units in which they are enrolled in a given term. These enrollment status classifications are used for verification of enrollment for loan deferment purposes and for financial aid eligibility. It is possible for part-time evening students to be enrolled in 12 units and therefore be classified as full-time for financial aid purposes.

Fall & Spring terms	Overload	Full-time	Three-quarter Time*	Half-time	Less than half time
JD Students	17 units or more	12-16 units	9-11 units	6-11 units	5 units or less
LLM Students	13 units or more	8-12 units	5-7 units	4-7 units	3 units or less

Summer term	Overload	Full-time	Three-quarter Time*	Half-time	Less than half time
JD Students	9 units or more	6-8 units	5 units	3-5 units	2 units or less
LLM Students	7 units or more	4-6 units	3 units	2-3 units	1 unit or less

* The three-quarter time enrollment status is used only for VA benefits determination.

Except HLP students.

INCOMPLETE COURSES

Where exigent circumstances arise that prevent a student from fulfilling the requirements of a course by the end of the term, the student may submit a Petition for Incomplete Course. To receive approval for an incomplete, JD students must obtain the approval of the director for student services, and LLM and SJD students must obtain the approval of their program director. The instructor's approval also is required for courses NOT graded by a final exam. Students should immediately consult with the associate dean or director for student services should they feel the need to petition for an incomplete. For more information on petitioning for an incomplete course, please refer to the Student Handbook which can be found on the law school website at http://www.ggu.edu/school_of_law/law_student_services/student_handbook .

If a student's petition for an incomplete course is successful, the student should not drop the course.

Students who are completing a course by re-enrolling should not register for the course again. Instead, they should submit a Notice of Intent to Complete Course form to the Law School Registrar's Office. Students will be enrolled in their preferred course section, provided there is room, at no tuition charge. Units for courses students are completing under this policy at no tuition charge are not included in calculating their cost of attendance for financial aid purposes. Students who are enrolling only in courses they are attempting to complete, and who are not enrolling in any new courses, will be charged the fees for the term, but no tuition.

EFFECT OF INCOMPLETE COURSES ON GRADUATION

If a student has an outstanding incomplete course at the end of the term after which they intend to graduate, he or she must resolve it by the deadline indicated below or the student's graduation will be postponed until the term in which the course is completed. The deadline for resolving an incomplete grade before it is changed to a "W" for "Withdrawn" is not altered by these deadlines.

SPECIAL MATERIALS & LITIGATION PROGRAM SUPPORT FEES

The School of Law assesses Special Materials fees in courses that require excessive amounts of duplicated materials.

These fees are also charged in courses that involve regular use of extra audio-visual equipment, rental of off-campus facilities or use of the Moot Court Room. With respect to courses in the Litigation Program, the following fee schedule has been designed to distribute the costs among program participants:

Litigation Course	Fee
Trial Advocacy	$50.00
Basic Skills/Substantive Courses	$20.00
Mock Trial Course and Competition	$50.00
Advanced Skills/Practicum Courses	$10.00

The Trial Advocacy fee will defray the extraordinary costs including rental of audio-visual equipment, bailiffs and courtroom security, and expenses for non-faculty attorneys who assist with the course.

The Mock Trial fee will defray extraordinary costs including rental of audio-visual equipment, bailiffs and courtroom security, and expenses for non-faculty attorneys who assist in evaluating student work and costs associated with participation in inter-school trial competitions.

Notes on fees

1. In the event that a litigation course may also require duplication of special materials, the cost of the special materials will be added to the litigation program support fee.
2. All fees will appear on the students' Statement of Charges.
3. Fees are non-refundable, effective on the first day of instruction for the term. When a student drops a course that has a Special Materials Fee after that date, the student may receive a credit for the Special Materials Fee only if the course is dropped on or before Friday, January 15, 2010. The special materials must be returned by the same date in an unused condition to Associate Dean Greg Egertson. If these conditions are met, Dean Egertson will approve the request for a credit for the Special Materials Fee and will instruct Student Accounting Services to make an account adjustment.

A list of courses that have a special materials fee is posted on the law school Registrar's Office Bulletin Board

ACADEMIC PROGRAM EVALUATION REPORT

The Registrar's Office maintains the Law School's academic program requirements in the student information system. Academic program requirements include required GPAs, required total units, required courses, conditions imposed by the Academic Standards Committee, and the number of elective units needed. Students can view their academic program evaluation report on the Web using GGU4YOU. It is a useful tool for schedule planning prior to registration. To view their reports, students should login to GGU4YOU, click on the "Student" tab and from the menu select "Evaluate Degree Programs". When students have registered for their last term, their report statuses should say "Pending (Anticipated complete)". Students with questions may visit the Registrar's Office, room 3310, or call us at 415-442-6620.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS & PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act affords students certain rights with respect to the privacy of their education records. One of the rights under FERPA is the right to request non-disclosure of "directory information" without written authorization. For more detailed information about what the university classifies as "Directory Information" or about students' rights under FERPA, and to obtain a privacy request form, see the university's website at www.ggu.edu/about/UniversityPolicies/PrivacyPolicy, or go to the Department of Education website at www.ed.gov, or refer to 34 CFR 99.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS FOR SPRING 2010 NEW COURSES

LAW 801K Constitutional Issues Seminar (2 units)

This course explores US Constitutional law through the lens of foreign and comparative law and with a focus on contemporary issues in domestic and foreign constitutional law. The goal of the course is to improve critical thinking, discussion and writing skills through a more focused engagement in topics of interests to the class. Students will improve their analytical, writing and presentation skills in connection with a paper on a constitutional law topic of their own choosing. This course will have a final paper; no exam. Prerequisites: Constitutional Law I or II.

LAW 837D Externship: Family Law (2-4 units)

This externship is designed to address a vastly underserved population: low income persons and families with urgent family law issues. Students will be placed with non-profit organizations, government agencies, and private attorneys specializing in Family Law, to handle all aspects of Family Law cases at all stages, from client interview to representation at court hearings, assisting in trials, and writing legal briefs. Eligible students may become certified to argue cases in court. Co-requisites: Students should have taken Community Property, Family Law, or Family Law Practice, or be taking one of these courses contemporaneously with this externship. This course is graded on a Credit/No Credit basis.

LAW 896Y Externship: Youth Law (2-4 Units)

Students work in non-profit law offices, government agencies or private offices as law externs, engaged in litigation, administrative hearings, ADR (alternative dispute resolution) or other advocacy on behalf of children or youth. Students also attend seminar class meetings, with an emphasis on reflective lawyering, professional responsibility, skills and practice issues. Students may work in a wide variety of substantive law areas such as juvenile justice, dependency, education, disability, mental health and/or civil rights. This course is graded on a Credit/No Credit basis.

LAW 827B High Technology Start-up: Business & Legal Issues (3 units)

This course will explore the business and legal issues associated with starting up and running a high technology company. It will cover the following topics: Formation of the entity (and governance), Founder's equity (and stock options), Business contracts (sale of goods, services, and E-commerce), Financings (venture capital and securities regulations), Employment issues, Intellectual property protection, and Exit strategies (M&A and IPO). This is a "hands-on" practical-oriented course, for those students planning to either become entrepreneurs, or provide legal advice to entrepreneurs. There will be Group Projects (50% of grade), as well as a final exam (50% of grade).

LAW 817B Introduction to Islamic Law (2 units)

This course introduces students to the basic concepts of Islamic law and their applicability in contemporary legal systems. Throughout the course students will learn the history and evolution of Islamic law, development of different schools of thought, an overview of the substantive principles and comparative analyses with existing legal principles in the world. Students will also have an opportunity to explore Islamic legal systems in diverse communities, the impact of colonialism and modernity on Islamic law, and to examine the presence of Islam in today's western societies.

LAW 805L Legal Profession Seminar (2 units)

This course provides an overview of the U.S. legal profession and the historical, economic, and sociological forces that shape the profession and the practice of law. A central focus of this course is to examine the everyday realities of the practice of law and explore what it means to be a lawyer--a "professional"--in a variety of the many contexts in which lawyers work, including big-firms, small firms and solo practices, and government law offices. Class reading and critical discussion will examine such topics as the history of the American legal profession, the changing social structure of the bar, the business of practicing law, public interest and "cause" lawyering, the realities of legal ethics in everyday law practice, gender issues in the practice of law, and the future of legal practice and the legal profession. The course requires seminar participants to actively participate in class and to complete several analytic memos and brief essays throughout the semester.

LAW807D Wills & Trusts Drafting (2 units)

In this two-unit Wills & Trusts drafting lab, students will have the opportunity to draft simple wills and the operative provisions of simple trusts (without significant tax implications). Students will engage in drafting based on written materials, and also based on information elicited from client interviews with live mock clients. The course includes a client counseling component. The lab will also include a visit to the Probate Court in San Francisco, and an opportunity to meet with GGU Law alumni who now practice in this area (details depending upon enrollment). Co-requisite: Wills & Trusts

Course descriptions for other courses are available on the GGU Law School website at www.ggu.edu/law/courses

SJD students must enroll in every fall and spring semester in one of the following courses as applicable: SJD 910, SJD 911, SJD 920, SJD 921, or SJD 922. Enrollment for the summer term is optional, but students who choose to enroll must register for one of these courses. SJD students will be required to have the signature of Professor Okeke in order to register for one of these sections. Additionally, SJD students may enroll in other specific law school course(s) in which they are interested.

SJD students should consult with Professor Chris Okeke, Director of the SJD Program regarding any registration questions or concerns, or in his absence, Margaret Arnold, Director of Graduate Law Programs. For all Visa related issues, please see John Pluebell, Assistant Director of Law International Student Services.

SJD 931 SJD Dissertation Seminar – This course provides collaborative support, intellectual and scholarly context, and useful direction and practical assistance to students in the SJD program.

SJD 995 SJD Curricular Practical Training – Qualified SJD international students in valid visa status may obtain practical training by participating in clinical programs, legal internships and externships, and law clerk positions. Students must consult with Professor Chris Okeke, as well as with John Pluebell, before registering for this course.

SPRING 2010 SCHEDULING NOTES

Classes starting at or after 4:00 p.m. and ending before 6:30 p.m. are listed in both the day and night sections of the line schedule.

1. INDEPENDENT STUDY/DIRECTED STUDY/THESIS - These are all independent study courses: Independent Study in the JD program (1-2 units), and Directed Study (1-3 units) or Thesis (4-6 units) in the LLM programs. Please see the course descriptions online for more information; JD Independent Study Guidelines are available from Law Student Services. Interested students must complete a Petition for Independent Study form which requires approvals by the faculty member supervising the project and the Director for Law Student Services or the Director of their LLM program. Petition for Independent Study forms are available online or at the Law Registrar's Office. The signed petition form should be submitted with a Schedule Change Request form to enroll in this course. JD students may enroll in only one Independent Study per semester and may earn a maximum of 4 units in Independent Study.
2. PRACTICAL LEGAL WRITING - Absent exigent circumstances, students are required to take this course during their final semester of law school. This course includes regular class meetings, as well as four required examinations over the course of the semester. Three of these exams are three hours in length. One three-hour exam is a take-home exam and the other two are administered on Saturdays, March 27 and April 24. The law school's policy regarding rescheduling exams will apply. Students who receive exam accommodations, or who cannot take the examination at the scheduled time for a reason permitted under the Student Handbook rules on rescheduling, should notify the Exam Coordinator at (415) 369-5201, or lawexam@ggu.edu, by the reschedule deadline to request that proper arrangements be made. The Registrar will assign students to sections within the day/time requested and students may not transfer between sections.
3. APPELLATE ADVOCACY - This second year course must be taken during the third or fourth semester of law school. Class sections are limited to 12 students each, so students are advised to register early. Students enrolling in this course should keep Shapo, et.al, Writing & Analysis in the Law (first year text) and the ALWD Citation Manual. Prior to the first class, students must sign on to the course TWEN site (through Westlaw). The password is AppAdSpring2010. The first reading assignment and information about course materials will be posted there. PLEASE NOTE that the Registrar will assign students to a particular class section on the day and time requested subject to space availability, and that once assigned students may not transfer between sections. STUDENTS WHO DO NOT ATTEND THE FIRST CLASS MEETING WILL BE ADMINISTRATIVELY WITHDRAWN FROM THE COURSE. Students who need to petition for an incomplete must do so prior to the date that the final brief is due. Please contact Professor Rose (lrose@ggu.edu), Director of the Advanced Legal Writing Program, with any questions about the course content or schedule.

4. EXTERNSHIPS: CIVIL FIELD PLACEMENT, CRIMINAL LITIGATION, ENVIRONMENTAL LAW, FAMILY LAW, HOMELESS ADVOCACY, REAL ESTATE, and YOUTH LAW are offered, subject to the following requirements.

Eligibility for enrollment:

Students must be in good academic standing, and have completed at least 29 units or have obtained the permission of the externship instructor. Students on academic probation may not enroll in an externship without permission from the Associate Dean for Student Services.

Hours per unit:

For each unit earned, students must work 45 hours at their placements, in addition to attending the seminar. First time students are encouraged to register for at least 3 units.

Mandatory attendance at externship seminar:

The seminar for each externship meets at least seven (7) times and more frequently at the discretion of the instructor. Attendance is mandatory.

How and When to register:

Interested students MUST REGISTER DURING PRIORITY REGISTRATION for an externship to be considered for a spot. Registration includes completion of the "EXTERNSHIP CLINIC APPLICATION" form and submission of it with a current resume to the instructor or contact person listed for the externship. The application form is available on the Law Registrar's Office Forms page on the law school website. The instructor will make final selections. Students are well advised to discuss matters with the appropriate instructor in advance. Professor Susan Rutberg is the Director of Externship Programs. Feel free to contact her at srutberg@ggu.edu or 415 442-6665 for advice regarding participation in any of the externships.

For further information, see the Externship Student Handbook, available online at http://www.ggu.edu/school_of_law/academic_law_programs/practical_legal_training/clinical_programs/attachment/CLINIC_Student_Handbook.pdf

Externship: Civil Field Placement: Jennifer Wyllie-Pletcher jwpletcher@yahoo.com and Sue Schechter sschechter@law.berkeley.edu. Externship applications with resume should be submitted to Benjamin Mayr in the Faculty Center (Room 2333) or by email to bmayr@ggu.edu.

Externship: Criminal Litigation: Susan Rutberg srutberg@ggu.edu. Externship applications with resume should be submitted by email or by placing them in Professor Rutberg's mailbox in the Faculty Center (Room 2333).

Externship: Environmental Law: Danielle Fugere dfugere@foe.org and Christopher Sproul csproul@enviroadvocates.com. Externship applications should be submitted to Professor Susan Rutberg by email at srutberg@ggu.edu or by placing them in her mailbox in the Faculty Center (Room 2333).

Externship: Family Law: Florence Sinay Phillips attyfsphillips@aol.com. Externship applications should be submitted to Professor Susan Rutberg by email at srutberg@ggu.edu or by placing them in her mailbox in the Faculty Center (Room 2333).

Externship: Homeless Advocacy: Katie Danielson kdanielson@sfbar.org. Externship applications with resume should be submitted to Sandra Derian in the Dean's Suite or by email to sderian@ggu.edu. Some class meetings will be held at the Homeless Advocacy Project law offices at 1360 Mission St., Suite 201, San Francisco, CA 94103.

Externship: Real Estate: Christine Tour-Sarkissian christine@tslo.com. Externship applications with resume should be submitted to daniel@tslo.com.

Externship: Youth Law: Stephen Rosenbaum srosenbaum@law.berkeley.edu. Externship applications should be submitted by email to the instructor or to Benjamin Mayr in the Faculty Center (Room 2333) bmayr@ggu.edu.

5. EXTERNSHIP: REAL ESTATE and related SEMINAR – The Real Estate Seminars, LAW 883T (Transactions) in the fall term, and LAW 883L (Litigation) in the spring term, each consist of 14 class meetings and 10 to 12 written assignments, for 3 units. The Fall Seminar covers drafting of co-ownership agreements, purchase and sale agreements and related documents, financing instruments, construction contracts, land use entitlement documents, commercial leases. The Spring Seminar deals with the same topics from a litigation perspective, and the drafting of appropriately related pleadings, from intake to post trial. Prerequisite for both seminars is completion of Property I & II.

The Real Estate Externship (LAW 883) may be taken for 2, 3 or 4 units depending upon the number of hours spent at an approved law office (supplied by the school). Students enrolling in the Real Estate Externship also must be enrolled in the corresponding Real Estate Seminar and meet all of its requirements. For more information contact Professor Christine Tour-Sarkissian at christine@tslo.com. Externship applications with resume should be submitted to daniel@tslo.com.

6. EXTERNSHIP: ENVIRONMENTAL LAW and ENVIRONMENTAL LAW PRACTICE SEMINAR are offered only in the spring term. Students enrolled in the externship work in field placements with government agencies, environmental organizations, and public interests groups. Students enrolling in the Externship: Environmental Law are required to also take the Environmental Law Practice Seminar. Students enrolling in the Externship should meet with Professor Alan Ramo during the fall semester to arrange a placement for the spring term. Students may enroll in the Seminar without registering for the Externship.
7. The ENVIRONMENTAL LAW & JUSTICE CLINIC (ELJC) is an in-house clinic which provides students with intensive training and hands-on lawyering experience. Under close faculty supervision, students provide legal representation on matters addressing environmental justice issues. Clinic students are certified under State Bar of California rules to perform many of the tasks of an attorney: they interview clients, develop legal strategies, draft legal documents, and counsel clients. They also may appear at hearings and negotiate with opposing parties, depending on the Clinic's caseload. Students must have taken or concurrently take Evidence. Students also must have completed an environmental law course or have the instructors' waiver of this requirement. Special scheduling arrangements can be made on a case-by-case basis for night students.

Students who enroll in the Clinic must have the permission of the instructors (see last paragraph) and must concurrently enroll in the Environmental Law & Justice Seminar (Law 834G) for 3 units. Students must enroll in 1-3 clinic credits in addition to the seminar units; students enrolling for 1 clinic credit must work 10.5 hours/week; for 2 credits, 13.5 hours/week; for 3 credits, 17 hours/week. Students may take additional clinic units in subsequent semesters without re-enrolling in the Seminar.

Students who wish to enroll in the Clinic and Seminar should submit a resume and cover letter to Professors Helen Kang (hkang@ggu.edu), Deborah Behles (dbehles@ggu.edu) and to Fe Gonzales (fgonzales@ggu.edu) by November 19, 2009. Students applying for both the seminar and clinic need submit only one set of materials. Later applications will be considered if space permits. The Clinic offices are currently located at 62 First Street, Suite 240 will be moving to new offices on the 5th floor at 40 Jessie Street by January 2010. See announcements in Law School News for additional application instructions.

8. The ENVIRONMENTAL LAW & JUSTICE SEMINAR is a required companion course to the Environmental Law & Justice Clinic, but it also may be taken by JD or LLM students who are not enrolling in the Clinic. The Seminar explores law and policy issues central to the environmental justice movement, focusing on matters that recur in the Clinic's representation of clients who are disproportionately impacted by pollution; explores the role of lawyers and their ethical responsibility in representing clients from communities overburdened by pollution; and provides skills training that students must master to become effective lawyers, focusing on skills that are necessary for the Clinic's caseload. Students enrolled in the Seminar by itself, without the Clinic component, will be required to fulfill a significant writing requirement.

Students who wish to enroll in the Seminar should submit a resume and cover letter to Professors Helen Kang (hkang@ggu.edu), Deborah Behles (dbehles@ggu.edu) and to Fe Gonzales (fgonzales@ggu.edu) by November 19, 2009. Students applying for both the seminar and clinic need submit only one set of materials. Priority will be given to students planning to participate in both the clinic and seminar. Later applications will be considered if space permits.

9. WOMEN'S EMPLOYMENT RIGHTS SEMINAR/CLINIC is an in-house clinic in which students handle real cases, representing low-income workers from diverse backgrounds in employment disputes in areas including unpaid wages, unemployment insurance, discrimination, workplace harassment, and family and medical leave. Responsibilities include staffing the clinic office and conducting casework. Students must have completed or be concurrently enrolled in Evidence. Prior or concurrent enrollment in Employment Law or Employment Discrimination is helpful but not required. This program is not limited to women students. Students with fluency in Spanish or Cantonese are encouraged to apply. Clinic students will be certified by the State Bar of California, which requires completion or concurrent enrollment in Evidence. Special scheduling arrangements are made on a case-by-case basis for night students.

Students may enroll for 1-3 clinic credits; 1 credit requires 10 hours/week at the clinic office; 2 credits require 12.5 hours/week; 3 credits require 15 hours/week. Enrollment is limited and priority is given to 3rd year students and those who can enroll in 2-3 units. WERC is currently accepting applications for spring 2010 and we will review applications on a rolling basis. We will give priority to students who submit a resume and cover letter by November 19, 2009. Applications (cover letter and resume) must be submitted to Professor Marci Seville (mseville@ggu.edu) and Hina Shah (hshah@ggu.edu).

New students MUST enroll in the Women's Employment Rights Seminar (Law 885S) for 3 units as well. Students, including LLM students, may enroll for the Seminar only, but only if space is available after all Clinic students have been enrolled.

WERC offices currently located at 62 First Street, Suite 240 will be moving to their new location on the 5th floor of 40 Jessie St. by January 2010. See www.ggu.edu/law/werc, or announcements in Law School News, for additional information.

10. EXTERNSHIP JUDICIAL: - The seminar for the Judicial Externship course will be divided between 3 different days. The first of these 3 dates will be on Friday, January 8, 2010, 9 am – 3 pm. The second seminar date will be 3-4 weeks into the semester, and the last date will be at the end of the term, both on dates which will be determined at the first class meeting. Attendance at ALL seminar sessions is mandatory. The judicial externship program is offered for 2 to 13 units in the fall and spring terms and 2 to 8 units in the summer. No student may enroll in more than one clinic or externship per semester. Students must have completed 40 units before beginning this course and must have completed or be currently enrolled in Evidence. Students must have a minimum GPA of 2.75 for federal court or appellate court externships or 2.5 for state trial court externships. Each student must work at least 45 hours per unit. These hours must extend over at least 10 weeks during the fall or spring terms or over at least 7 weeks during the summer term. The seminar class hours, or hours spent preparing for the seminar, are in addition to the required working hours. Students must secure a placement before the beginning of the semester, and the position must be pre-approved by Associate Dean Susanne Aronowitz or Jody Lerner, Director for Law Student Services. Interested students must pre-register for this course; registration includes submission of the "JUDICIAL EXTERNSHIP APPLICATION" which is due to either instructor by Monday, January 4, 2010. The application form can be downloaded from the Law Registrar's web page under the "Law School Forms" link. Applications and inquiries should be directed to Associate Dean Susanne Aronowitz, at (415) 442-6625 or saronowitz@ggu.edu, or Jody Lerner, Director for Law Student Services, at (415) 442-6624 or jlerner@ggu.edu.
11. STREET LAW – Students interested in this program should contact Professor Thomas Nazario at the University of San Francisco, (415) 422-6832, or Nazario@usfca.edu for an interview before enrolling. As part of your teaching responsibilities in this program, students are required to attend a weekly seminar at USF every Thursday, from 3:30 to 5:20 p.m.
12. CONSTITUTIONAL LAW I – HLP – This course section is open only to students enrolled in the Honors Lawyering Program.

13. CURRICULAR PRACTICAL TRAINING (LLM) – This course is open only to LLM students holding F-1 student visas. The signature of the LLM Program Director or Adviser is required to register for this class. For information about CPT eligibility, contact Margaret Arnold, Director of Graduate Law Programs, or John Pluebell, Assistant Director of Law International Student Services.
14. CURRICULAR PRACTICAL TRAINING (JD) – This course is open only to JD students holding F-1 student visas. The signature of the Associate Dean for Law Student Services or the Director for Law Student Services is required to register for this class. For information about CPT eligibility, contact John Pluebell, Assistant Director of Law International Student Services.
15. SPECIAL PROBLEMS courses are writing-intensive problem-solving courses focusing on bar exam subjects. These courses are recommended for students who wish to develop their exam-writing skills. In order to enroll in a Special Problems course, you must have completed the prerequisite course in that subject. For Special Problems: Civil Procedure you must have completed Civil Procedure I and II, for Special Problems: Contracts & Torts you must have completed Contracts I & II and Torts I & II. For Special Problems: Criminal Law & Procedure the prerequisites are Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure I. For Special Problems: Property the prerequisites are Property I & II. Students who have previously taken a Special Problems course may not enroll in a second Special Problems course covering the same subject(s) areas, but they may enroll in another Special Problems course. Students may not take more than one Special Problems class in the same term and no more than two total. Students found to be enrolled in more than one Special Problems course will be required to drop, or they will be administratively dropped, from all but one of them. Exams may be scheduled during the term for these courses at the discretion of the instructor and may be on Saturdays or Sundays. Students on the 'wait list' for this course are encouraged to attend the first class because there are occasional opportunities to obtain the seat of someone who is dropped from the course.
ADVANCED LEGAL RESEARCH: eSEARCH $LS2 – This course section is open only to Law Review or Environmental Law Journal (ELJ) students. Enrollment in this section will require the approval of the instructor and must be done with a paper form, it can not be done online. Students must attend 9 designated regularly scheduled eSearch classes on Wednesdays at 4:30. They need to attend the first session and will be given a separate course description at that time.
17. ADVANCED LEGAL WRITING – Appellate Advocacy is a pre-requisite for Advanced Legal Writing. Students may not take this course concurrently with Appellate Advocacy. Students who received a grade of C+ or lower in Appellate Advocacy should contact Professor Schaaf (tschaaf@ggu.edu) before registering for this course. This 1-unit course will have 10 class meetings.
18. STRATEGIES OF LEGAL WRITING – Students registering for this course will need to have the permission of the instructor, Mohamed Nasralla, in advance. Students must have taken all law school required courses with the exception of Practical Legal Writing. The final deadline for submitting course work in this class is the last day of the final exam period, May 12, 2010.
19. LEGAL ANALYSIS – Students required to take this class will be notified by January 7, 2010 and will be automatically withdrawn from Criminal Law. They must take Criminal Law in the evening during the fall 2010 term, unless they receive a schedule waiver from the Dean or Director for Law Student Services. Enrollment in Legal Analysis is by invitation only, but students who feel that they might benefit from postponing Criminal Law and taking this class may apply to the Associate Dean or Director for Student Services for permission to add the course.

20. LAW REVIEW WRITERS, LAW REVIEW ASSOCIATE EDITORS, and LAW REVIEW BOARD – Open to Law Review Members only. Membership on Law Review is determined in two ways: by first-year grades (top 15%) or through a writing competition that is held during the middle of the spring semester of the first year. Students who will have completed 29 units of first-year required courses by the end of the spring semester (full-time first-year or part-time second-year students), are eligible to participate in the writing competition or to be invited to join by virtue of class ranking. Membership requires a two year commitment.

Members who are completing their first year on Law Review must sign up for LAW 861A Law Review Writer (2 units/fall, 1 unit/spring).

Members who are completing their second year on Law Review, but who are not on the Law Review Board, must sign up for LAW 861C Law Review Associate Editors (2 units/fall, 1 unit/spring).

Members who are on the Law Review Board, must sign up for LAW 861D Law Review Board (2 units/fall & 2 units/spring). This is required of all Law Review Board members during the fall and spring terms.

If exigent circumstances prevent students from fulfilling their Law Review commitment, students may substitute the Independent Study course for Law Review units by notifying the Law Review Editor-in-Chief and submitting a Schedule Change Request form (dropping Law Review and adding Independent Study) and a Petition for Independent Study form to the Registrar's Office. The student must find a faculty adviser to supervise the Independent Study, and have the faculty adviser and the Director for Law Student Services sign the Petition for Independent Study form. Students will not be allowed to petition for an incomplete grade in Law Review. The student's transcript will note withdrawal from Law Review.

21. ENVIRONMENTAL LAW JOURNAL (ELJ) - Membership on ELJ is determined in two ways: by first year grades (top 15%) or through an application process held every April and October. Mandatory seminar sessions of not more than 12 hours will be scheduled during the first semester of membership.

ELJ Writers must register for LAW 862A ENVIRONMENTAL LAW JOURNAL WRITERS I (2 units) in their first semester and for LAW 862B ENVIRONMENTAL LAW JOURNAL WRITERS II (1 unit) in their second semester of membership.

ELJ Associate Editors (not members of the ELJ Editorial Board) must register for LAW 862C ELJ ASSOCIATE EDITORS (2 units/fall, 1 unit/spring).

ELJ Editorial Board Members must register for LAW 862D ELJ EDITORIAL BOARD (2 units/first semester, 2 units/second semester).

If exigent circumstances prevent students from fulfilling their ELJ commitment, students may substitute the Independent Study course for ELJ units by notifying the ELJ Editor-in-Chief and submitting a Schedule Change Request form (dropping ELJ and adding Independent Study) and a Petition for Independent Study form to the Registrar's Office. The student must find a faculty adviser to supervise the Independent Study, and have the faculty adviser and the Director for Law Student Services sign the Petition for Independent Study form. Students will not be allowed to petition for an incomplete grade in the Environmental Law Journal. The student's transcript will note withdrawal from ELJ.

22. JD enrollment in the night sections of APPELLATE ADVOCACY, CONSTITUTIONAL LAW II, CRIMINAL PROCEDURE I, EVIDENCE, PRACTICAL LEGAL WRITING, PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY, SPECIAL PROBLEMS: PROPERTY and TRIAL ADVOCACY, will be limited to part-time evening students until noon on Tuesday, December 1, 2009. Full-time day students should register for a day section, or may enroll in an evening section, on a space available basis, after noon on December 1. Wait lists for these evening sections will also not be available to full-time day students until after noon on December 1.

23. COURTROOM AS THEATER - This course will meet on Fridays in two class sections, LS1 at 11:20 a.m. - 1:00 p.m., and LS2 at 1:20-3:00 p.m. Students should enroll in section LS1 and should attend the first class on Friday, January 15, at 11:20 a.m. At that class, the instructors will divide the enrolled students into the two sections, and they will notify the Registrar's Office of which students will be moved to section LS2. After the first class, any student wishing to enroll will need the signature of the instructor. Attendance at the first class is mandatory. Students not present will be administratively dropped from the class. Students on the 'wait list' for this course are encouraged to attend the first class because there are occasional opportunities to obtain the seat of someone who is dropped from the course.

24. TRIAL ADVOCACY - Although Evidence is listed as a prerequisite for Trial Advocacy, and that is preferred, the two courses also may be taken concurrently. Students enrolling in the night section should have completed Evidence. Students who have not done so should contact the instructors.

FINAL EXAM: The final exam for Trial Advocacy will be the trial of a complete case by a team of two students against another pair of students. These "final exam" trials will be held at the end of the semester on specific dates to be announced later. Trials are held either at the Hall of Justice or the Civil Courthouse in San Francisco.

Students enrolling or planning to enroll in Trial Advocacy should be aware that attendance at the first class meeting is mandatory. Registered students absent from the first class without a compelling reason may be dropped from the course. Students on the wait list must attend the first class meeting if they hope to get a seat in the class.

25. COMPETITIONS/MOOT COURTS - Participation in these programs is limited to students chosen for participation in accordance with a selection process administered by the faculty adviser/coach. Students can enroll without explicit permission unless otherwise noted below but may continue only with the approval of the instructor supervising the program. The Faculty Advisers/Coaches are:

Environmental Law Moot Court: Kristin Henry, kristin.henry@sierraclub.org

Environmental Negotiation Competition: Robin Salsburg, rsalsburg@phlpnet.org. Permission is not required to enroll in the Environmental Negotiation Competition. This class will meet for the first 8-9 weeks of the term, until the competition is over.

Jessup International Law Moot Court: Remigius Chibueze, rchibueze@ggu.edu

Traynor Moot Court: Leslie Rose lrose@ggu.edu. Students may not enroll in this course without permission. Participation is limited to students selected by the Moot Court Board in a selection process administered by the Advanced Legal Writing Program.

26. BUSINESS ASSOCIATIONS, EVIDENCE, and WILLS & TRUSTS - Students are encouraged not to take more than one 4-unit required course at a time.

27. EVIDENCE - The night section of Evidence will require 5 additional class meetings. These classes are scheduled on Saturdays, January 23, February 6 & 20, March 27, and April 10 at 9:30 AM-12:10 PM.

28. ADVANCED MOCK TRIAL - Students enrolling in this course should be aware that additional evening and weekend hours will be required beyond the scheduled time for the class.

29. WATER LAW - The course for Spring 2010 will include a more detailed case study of law and policy issues surrounding the Bay Delta controversy.

30. PRE-BAR BAR REVIEW - This is a tuition-free course offered to all students in their last two semesters of law school. Professor Stafford is a bar preparation expert. This course is included in the schedule for information purposes only and not for registration. Interested students in their last year should go to the first class. The start date will be Friday, January 22.
31. CONSORTIUM OF BAY AREA LAW SCHOOLS - Golden Gate University School of Law is part of a consortium of five law schools, including University of San Francisco School of Law, Santa Clara University School of Law, UC Davis Law School, and UC Berkeley School of Law. Upper-division students who are interested in taking a course at any of these institutions must complete a Transfer of Units form and submit it with a course description of the course they want to take to the director for law student services. If permission is given, the student must register for this Consortium course, LAW 701, and then complete a Consortium Agreement form (available at the Law Registrar's Office). Tuition is paid to Golden Gate University, not to the host school where the consortium class is taken.
- If Consortium classes are dropped, remember that they must be dropped at both schools.
32. CRIMINAL LITIGATION - This course will have two class meetings at the Hall of Justice, 850 Bryant Street at the regular class time, on dates to be announced.
33. LAW & LEADERSHIP SEMINAR - JD students entering their 2nd or 3rd year may submit an application to take this 1-unit course. Students accepted will enroll for both the fall and spring terms. Grades will be entered and credit earned after completion of both semesters. Students will register for the course for 0 units in the fall and 1 unit in the spring term. This class will be taught by M. Neitz, A. Dalfen, S. Aronowitz, R. Van Cleave and E. Christiansen and will meet four times during the term. For the Spring 2010 term, the class will meet on Wednesday, January 13, at 11:45-1:00 and on Fridays, February 19, March 26 and April 9 at 2:45-4:45 PM.

Exam dates for courses in the LLM (Tax) Program are listed in the line schedule on page 20 and all LLM (Tax) exams will be at 6:30 PM.

Any changes made in this schedule of final examinations after publication of the schedule will come from the office of the Law Registrar. Revised schedules will be posted on the Law School website Course Schedules page for Spring 2010.

ADVANCE EXAM RESCHEDULING

Students requesting an advance rescheduling of examinations must submit an Exam Rescheduling Form to the exam coordinator in Room 3342 by 6:30 P.M. Friday, April 2, 2010, and then only under the following circumstances:

SPRING 2010 SCHEDULE OF FINAL EXAMS

- i. A student has two School of Law examinations that are scheduled to start within a 23-hour period (not including take home exams and first-year midterms);
- ii. A student has three School of Law examinations on three consecutive days (not including take home exams);
- iii. A student's religious beliefs prohibit the taking of an examination at the scheduled time;
- iv. Student participation in a law school competition or course work for which the student is receiving academic credit.

The examination coordinator will determine which exam to move in the case of situation 1 or 2, above. If more than one exam is rescheduled, the exams normally are kept in the same order.

Exams will not be rescheduled for vacations, airplane tickets, family events, business conflicts, or conferences. In addition, School of Law exams will not be rescheduled due to conflicts with exams at other law schools or other programs in the university.

Exceptions to this policy might be granted (with timely and appropriate documentation) for the wedding of an immediate family member (parent, sibling, child) IF the student has a role in the ceremony AND the student has a direct time conflict.

Students are prohibited from discussing exam reschedule requests with their instructors. All exam reschedule requests or questions must be directed to the examination coordinator.

Students may request a decision on an exam rescheduling question before registering or before the last day to drop for 100% tuition refund.

ExamSoft

All students are eligible to take their exams on their laptop. No additional registration or fee is necessary, but, the software must be installed prior to the student's first exam date. For minimum system requirements, go to www.examsoft.com/ggulaw. Installation and login instructions will be posted in Law School News and on the Law School website. All other communications will be sent through the email address on file with the Law Registrar. Please confirm that this address is working and correct. For any questions or technical assistance, please contact the Exam Coordinator at 415.369.5201 or lawexam@ggu.edu.

Visiting Students: All visiting students should contact the exam coordinator if they wish to use their laptops on exams while at Golden Gate University School of Law.

Exam Accommodations

Students with a need to request exam accommodations should contact the Disability Services Coordinator at 415.442.6867 or lawds@ggu.edu.
