CITATION

A native of Massachusetts who completed his undergraduate education at Suffolk University in Boston and earned an M.B.A. and a J.D. degree at Golden Gate University, Richard Rosenberg has devoted his career to the banking industry. He today enjoys recognition as one of the United States' most effective and far-sighted banking executives. After serving as vice chairman of the board and a director of Wells Fargo Bank he held the same positions at Crocker Bank and, in 1985, was appointed president and chief operating officer of Seattle-First National Bank and Seafirst Corporation. He today holds the position of vice chairman and head of BankAmerica's California Banking Group, responsible for banking activities in California and commercial real estate lending nationwide. A commander in the United States Naval Reserve, Mr. Rosenberg serves on a number of corporate boards and is a member of the American Bar Association and of the Board of Trustees of Pitzer College in the Claremont Colleges group and of Golden Gate University.

In recognition of his brilliant career as a banker and his outstanding contributions to his community and Golden Gate University, the Board of Trustees of the University hereby confers upon the degree of

RICHARD M. ROSENBERG

DOCTOR OF LAWS, HONORIS CAUSA

with all the rights and privileges pertaining thereto.

Granted this fourth day of June
