

1995

Environmental Law Summer Program, 1995

Marketing

Golden Gate University School of Law

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.law.ggu.edu/bulletins>

Part of the Legal Education Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Marketing, "Environmental Law Summer Program, 1995" (1995). Law School Bulletins & Prospectus. Paper 107.
<http://digitalcommons.law.ggu.edu/bulletins/107>

This Newsletter or Magazine is brought to you for free and open access by the About GGU School of Law at GGU Law Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Law School Bulletins & Prospectus by an authorized administrator of GGU Law Digital Commons. For more information, please contact jfischer@ggu.edu.

Summer 1995 Course Offerings

Environmental Law and Justice Clinic

3 or 4 units; May 31 - July 25; Seminar Meetings on Tuesdays, 10:00 - 11:30 am

Students in this exciting Clinic directly represent low-income and minority clients on environmental matters. Under the supervision of faculty members Alan Ramo, former Legal Director of Citizens For a Better Environment and practitioner with 20 years experience, and Anne Eng, experienced environmental justice attorney and member of the San Francisco Environment Commission, Clinic students interview and counsel clients, develop legal strategies, draft legal documents, and appear at hearings. Students enrolled this summer will litigate a Clean Water Act action in federal court involving unlawful discharges by the Navy at its Hunters Point naval shipyard, and represent community groups challenging a proposed power plant in San Francisco's minority neighborhood of Hunters Point/Bayview. Students work from 22 to 30 hours per week on Clinic cases. Evidence is a prerequisite or corequisite. Environmental Law is recommended.

Environmental Crimes and Civil Sanctions

2 units; May 31 - June 28; Mondays & Wednesdays 6:30 - 9:10 pm, plus Saturdays June 10 & 24, 9:30 am - 12:30 pm

This class offers a detailed examination of how civil and criminal environmental laws are enforced, both in theory and in practice. Topics covered include knowledge requirements under federal and state law, corporate criminal offenses, civil and administrative actions, environmental audit and compliance policies, and sentencing and civil fines. Students will study with Adjunct Professor Michael Delaney, formerly chief of the Los Angeles District Attorney's Environmental Crimes Unit (the largest local environmental prosecutor's office in the country). No prerequisites.

Tuition and Registration

Call the Law Registrar's Office at (415) 442-6620 to request enrollment materials, which may either be mailed in by May 1 or submitted in person on May 31. Tuition is $535 per unit.

For More Information

Call Professor Clifford Rechtschaffen, director of Golden Gate's Environmental Law Program, at (415) 442-6674. Inquiries may also be faxed to (415) 442-6609.

Golden Gate University School of Law

An Ideal Location for Studying Environmental Law

The State of California boasts some of the nation's most spectacular environmental resources and some of its worst environmental problems. The State also frequently sets national trends with its cutting-edge pollution control and resource protection laws. All of Golden Gate's environmental law faculty have practiced extensively in California and are experts in current environmental legal issues.

Additionally, the Law School is located in the heart of downtown San Francisco, one of the most beautiful cities in the world. With the legal and financial district on one side and the bustling South of Market Area on the other, the school is a short walk from restaurants, shopping, and many downtown attractive plazas.

Golden Gate University School of Law is fully approved by the American Bar Association and is a member of the American Association of Law Schools.

This Summer 1995 In San Francisco

Study Environmental Law

*Environmental Law Program
536 Mission Street
San Francisco, CA 94105-2968*

GOLDEN GATE UNIVERSITY

---

Study Environmental Law

This Summer 1995 In San Francisco

This summer, Golden Gate University School of Law offers students an unusual opportunity to gain expertise in environmental law. Students may enroll in the Law School's innovative in-house environmental justice clinic, or study in depth how environmental laws are enforced.

---