DEDICATION

The editors and writers of The Women's Law Forum are proud to dedicate this second issue to attorney Fay Stender.

Ms. Stender is a charter contributor to The Women's Law Forum; her co-authored article on joint custody appeared in our first issue, published in 1979 (8 Golden Gate U.L. Rev. 559). She is well known for her long and tireless commitment to social causes, public interest law and women's equality. Fay's willingness to lend her efforts and name to our fledgling publication was of immense importance to us in launching the WLF.

Tragically, last summer a gunman gained entry to her home, and Fay Stender was shot several times and seriously injured. Her convalescence will be a long one, and may never be complete. The medical expenses have been enormous, and will continue for some time. We urge our readers and supporters to contribute to: Friends of Fay Stender, Fay Stender Trust Fund, Bank of California, PO Box 7773, Berkeley, CA 94701.

To Fay: We extend our affection and support, our gratitude and concern. We salute your courage and eagerly await your recovery.
