PREFACE

Welcome to Volume 50 of the Golden Gate University Law Review Ninth Circuit Survey. The Survey is the only law review in the country dedicated exclusively to decisions issued by the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. The Survey provides students an opportunity to explore topics in depth by analyzing the underlying reasoning, effect, and possible implications on future law. The Notes in this edition highlight pivotal and recent decisions issued by the Ninth Circuit—each exploring a different area of law.

We would like to begin by extending a very heartfelt thank you to Judge Jacqueline H. Nguyen, who graciously provided the introduction to this edition of the Survey. Judge Nguyen was generous in providing insightful commentary that touches on the Ninth Circuit's dedication to civic education.

We would also like to express our gratitude to: Dean Anthony Niedwiecki, who has been an advocate for the journal and has provided us with continued support; Academic Dean Mark Yates for providing his invaluable guidance and expertise to Golden Gate University Law Review; Heather Varanini, who has our deepest gratitude for her editorial and Bluebook assistance; and Professor Jennifer Babcock for her expert guidance and continued support as Golden Gate University Law Review's Faculty Advisor. Finally, we offer our sincerest thanks to each author for their articles as these Notes represent the culmination of our authors' time, passion, and devotion to critical issues.

As the Editor-in-Chief and Managing Editor for the 2019–2020 year, we have been excited and inspired by many aspects of the Ninth Circuit, from its judges and jurisprudence to its history and heritage. We have also been energized by the hard work and dedication of the 2019–2020 Golden Gate University Law Review Staff Writers, Associate Editors, and Executive Board Members who worked tirelessly to make this edition possible. A law review issue is never an individual effort, but instead the result of much collaboration. It is our privilege to present this edition of the Golden Gate University Law Review Ninth Circuit Survey.
