Receive California Bar Foundation Scholarships

Six Golden Gate University School of Law students have received 2012 California Bar Foundation Scholarships – more scholarship recipients than any other California law school this year, with the exception of Stanford with whom Golden Gate tied. Three students received awards from the foundation's flagship Public Interest Scholarship Program and three were awarded scholarships under the foundation's Rosenthal Bar Exam Scholarship Program. The scholarships are awarded to exceptional law students who demonstrate a commitment to public service and academic excellence.

The Public Interest Scholarship recipients are: Jessica Brown '13, Kathleen Flynn '12, Kristi Schulenberg '12. The Rosenthal Bar Exam Scholarship recipients are: Harmony Grove '12, Shannon Grube '12, Luthien Niland '12.

As the 2012 Daniel S. Goodman Scholar, Jessica received $7,500, while both Kathleen and Kristi received $2,500. As Rosenthal Bar Exam Scholars, Harmony, Shannon and Luthien all received free Barbri courses, and Harmony received an additional $2,000.

Jessica, Kathleen and Kristi will be honored at the organization's scholarship reception on September 22, 2011. Harmony, Shannon and Luthien were honored at the organization's spring reception on May 10.

A nonprofit founded in 1990 and affiliated with the State Bar of California, the California Bar Foundation annually awards scholarships of up to $7,500 to outstanding California law students to assist with tuition and related education expenses.
