

3-11-1976

Caveat, March 11, 1976

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.law.ggu.edu/caveat>

 Part of the Legal Education Commons

Recommended Citation

"Caveat, March 11, 1976" (1976). Caveat. Paper 71.
<http://digitalcommons.law.ggu.edu/caveat/71>

This Newsletter or Magazine is brought to you for free and open access by the Other Law School Publications at GGU Law Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Caveat by an authorized administrator of GGU Law Digital Commons. For more information, please contact jfischer@ggu.edu.

Caveat

Vol. XI No. 21

GOLDEN GATE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

MARCH 11, 1976

ELECTION RESULTS

The election results published in CAVEAT on February 26, 1976 as unofficial have been subsequently ratified by the SBA Board of Governors and are now the official results.

The run-off election held February 25 & 26 resulted in a victory for Marge Holmes as SBA President and Howard Moskowitz as FSC Representative-at-Large.

EVALUATIONS TO BE SOLICITED WEEK OF MARCH 22

The Evaluations Committee will be conducting its student evaluation of faculty during classes beginning Monday, March 22, 1976. Survey forms will be handed out to all students at the beginning or end of class during that week.

BIG GAME SAT. MARCH 13 AT HASTINGS!!

The Golden Gate Upstarts will play Hastings in Co-ed Volleyball on March 13th at 1 p.m. in the Hastings Commons. The game promises to be an interesting match-up, pitting the exciting and unconventional style of the Golden Gators against the drab, gray-flanneled approach of Hastings. Our scouts inform us that Hastings has some good players. But Golden Gate has been practicing some tricky plays. If you're interested in playing on Saturday, come to the last practice, Thursday, March 11 at 3:30 p.m. at the Sutter Street YWCA. Everyone that shows up on Saturday will play!

LAW REVIEW ANNOUNCES NEW EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Robert Kaplan has been selected to be the editor-in-chief of the Law Review next year. On March 19th the procedures for selecting next year's staff will be announced; these procedures will include instructions regarding the writing competition. The announcement will be available in the Law Review office in the back of the law library and posted on second floor bulletin boards. In addition, the Caveat of the next week (March 22 '76) will publish the instructions in full.

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Due to publication and financial considerations, this issue of Caveat is very short and meant to get dated material out to the student body. A full issue will be published next week. Please submit articles by noon, Thurs. March 11

FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION DEADLINES

Applications for the National Direct Student Loan and College Work Study for Summer 1976 and Fall-Spring 1976-77 are now being accepted.

The Deadline for Summer, 1976 aid is April 19, 1976; for Fall-Spring 1976-77 April 2, 1976 if a continuing student and May 15, 1976 if an entering student.

Students applying for the Federally Insured Student Loan should submit their applications eight weeks prior to the beginning of the semester to insure receipt of their loan checks in the beginning of the semester.

For applications and further information please contact the Financial Aids Office, Rooms 102 and 106.

BALA SEMINAR ON THE PERFORMING ARTIST AND THE LAW

Bay Area Lawyers for the Arts (BALA), in association with Hastings College of the Law, will present a one-day seminar on the legal problems of performing artists in theater, dance, and music. The seminar, entitled "BALA on the Boards", will take place on Saturday, March 13th, from 9:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M., in the Commons at Hastings. The seminar will be followed by a "BALA GALA" from 7:30 pm to Midnight.

General admission to the seminar is $1.50, plus $1.50 to the gala, or $2.00 for the whole day. A seminar handbook on The Performing Artist and the Law will be on sale. If you wish to attend, or for further information, call (415) 848-2080.

"California at the Crossroads" Series: THE REFORM MOVEMENT IN CALIF : INSTITUTING FAIRNESS IN POLITICS

"The Reform Movement in California: Instituting Fairness in Politics" will be the subject of a public forum in the series "California at the Crossroads" to be discussed by Daniel Lowenstein, Chairman of the California Fair Political Practices Commission. Sponsored by the Earl Warren Legal Institute, and others, the program will begin at 8:00 p.m. March 17, in Room 150, Boalt Hall on the UC Berkeley campus, free admission to the public.