As the new Building crawls to completion, the administration is preparing for the transition the best way they know how: By setting up new committees. The Ad Hoc committee on new committees has met over the weekend (and fell in love with the Committee to resurrect 'Jessica Stone's' Committee--but that's another story). The Ad Hoc Committee has set up the New Law Library Rules Committee, or RUBELL--Rules for a Better Law Library--Subcommittee. In spite of the Sting being on TV, RUBELL was able to hammer out tentative regulations for the New Law Library. Here they are:

MODEL CODE FOR MODEL BEHAVIOR IN THE NEW LAW LIBRARY by RUBELL, of course!

Fines will be levied for the below violations. First time offenders shall be treated just as shabbily as repeaters. A fund will be established as fines are levied. Proceeds from the fund may be used to fund a violators party in the Spring, to be held at Sutro Bath House (Not to be confused with P,M&S Bath and Sauna House).

Librarian, Acting librarian or Rotating Work/Study Slave of the Night will have final say as to who violates what rule. No Judicial Review or right of Appeal is available, here. There is an implied waiver of all rights to users of the new library. Failure to pay fine on command will result in immediate ejection of the falsely or rightly accused perpetrator.

Here are the rules:

Class A Violations:

Sleeping.....$ .05/hr.
 Sleeping with feet up..... .25/hr.
 Sleeping, but pretending not to be 1.25/hr.

Class B Violations:

Talking aloud.....05/per conversation.
 Talking aloud at front desk...25/per "
 Talking aloud to bums that happen to wander in from Mission St.....95/per " .

Class C Violations:

Laughing.....05/giggle.
 Laughing Hysterically.....25/ "
 Laughing Hysterically one week before finals .....$7.50.

(Here is where we clean up)

Gas and Odor Violations:

Smoking out of smoking zones.....05/per.
 Colorless but far from odorless emissions.....95/per (3/1.79)
 Combination of sound and aromatic flaggulations .....75/per

(requires min. investigative work)

Minor Violations:

Picking nose.....05/insertion.
 Successfully Picking Nose.....75/per
 Surreptitiously Picking nose (and actually think no one is watching).....1.25/per.

If you fly right you need not worry. Let's work together for a better library, one we can be proud of.

Note: Any criticism of these rules can be brought up at the Committee to review the New Rules Committee committee meeting. A committee has been appointed to decide where the committee will meet. Judging from the behavior of the committee members at the last meeting, they sure as hell can't afford to meet in the Law Library.

NICE PEOPLE! The 75 construction workers on the new $9 million Golden Gate U. bldg. at 536 Mission were treated by Pres Otto Butz and the faculty to a dinner dance at the Mark Hopkins last Fri. night "because they did a hard job so well." Tab for the 150-odd crowd: $4950...

Herb Caen, November 8, 1979

Dear Caveat,

Friday night I was watching "The Unknown War" when the heretofore unknown Soviet side of WWII was pre-empted just as the Russians had retaken Stalingrad. In place of cannons and carnage was this broadcast by the Republican Committee which said again and again that "inflation is our greatest evil and government spending is the cause of inflation." The conclusion seemed to be to liquidate Health Education and Welfare. I wished they'd put the battle of Stalingrad back on.

I was against inflation. I appreciated Carter's vainglorious veto of the last Congressional destruction project bill, a pork barrel of needless dams and other pavement if there ever was one. But I was not assured that there would be less inflation simply because the Two Parties had glommed on to the same side of the same "issue" again. An issue with no sides is no issue and prop. 13 is fait accompli.

I was oppressed by the ominous silence of the Two Parties concerning an obvious if not paramount cause of inflation. It is perhaps also the cause of the bi-partisan silence, a silence of guns, guns at the back behind the smiles, maybe.

The suctioning off of the greater part of our resources for the Defense of wealthier countries than ourselves like Japan and Germany is probably the greater cause of inflation just as it is the greater cause of government spending. While the Two Parties do exhort the balance of trade inequity and the foreign exchange inequity, they find it taboo apparently to point out that this problem is definitely not helped by the stationing and feeding of thousands of American troops spending millions of American dollars in those ultra-expensive countries. Curious how those beneficiaries of our government spending such as Japan, Germany or Holland complain of less, much less inflation than we have.

Yet it does not seem that either of the Two Parties will complain that this benefit such countries derive from massive infusions of our dollars into their pockets is to our detriment. Free from the crushing burden of protecting themselves from Communism they are also free to devote their own resources towards the manufacture of superior products which loot our economy and discredit our work people. If they are also free to sell for less to Americans than they sometimes do at home, well, I guess a country must have some sort of economic war expenditure in the absence of weapons.

Out in the alley the dollar is murdered and the military megalith is the menace, and no one will mention it. We are told importation of oil is the culprit, yet there is a serious glut of Alaskan oil on the West coast at this moment. Germany has no domestic oil and must import it all, but has less inflation. Far less, and far less Defense. Still the Two Parties would have us either pay more for oil, far more, or liquidate HEW. Are they the real causes of inflation? The Praetorianism of the Pentagon has gagged the leaders, but the Americans are rational and educable people. A good start would be a YES vote on Prop. V. Many fine trends started here.

Thank you,
 Christopher Lucas

(Ed. Note: We apologize for not running this before the election, but we still think it interesting.)

FROM THE DEAN'S OFFICE

The student message board is located next to the front elevator, across from the Deans' Offices. Students should get into the habit of checking the board each time they are in school because urgent messages are likely to arrive when they are least expected. Students are urged to use this board only for messages--it will be most effective if one message does not cover another and names are easy to find.

PREZ CORNER

ATTENTION ALL WOMEN: I have been informed by a woman student that there have been at least 3 instances of assaults on women (2 sexual contact & 1 where a knife was drawn on a woman) in the ramp leading to the bus terminal on 1st Street (the ramp that crosses over 1st St. and connects the parking garage to the bus terminal). All women students are advised that the safest way to enter the bus terminal is to use the main entrance that faces Mission St. If you have any questions, please contact me.

EXAM TAKING TECHNIQUES: First year students have expressed a desire to have a meeting with upper division students about exam taking techniques. I have scheduled meetings for Wed., 11-22, 2:45-4:00 and 6:00-6:45 p.m., rooms TBA next week. Upper division students will be present to answer questions and provide any hints they can about how they each study for exams, what they do to relieve some of the pressure of exams, etc. All students are invited to attend. Any upper division students who are willing to share their exam experiences with 1st year students, please leave your name and number in the SBA box in the faculty center or let me know personally.

FINANCIAL AID COMMITTEE: Last year students formed an ad hoc financial aid committee to review GGU's financial aid program and make recommendations for change, primarily in the Work-Study Program. Some of the recommendations resulted in changes in the federal regulations, largely due to the efforts of Kathy Reiley. Work still needs to be done in other areas- FISL, NDSL, GGU's procedure for determining financial need, and especially GGU's scholarship program. Currently the Budget Committee has been working with the school funds developer to discover possible scholarship and grant money sources. The students working on this are Michael Pitts, Dick Grosboll, and Vic Abrunzo. Any students or organizations who have info about possible funding sources should contact these individuals. Any student who is interested in working on improving our financial aid/scholarship program, please sign the list on the vending machine. Deadline for sign-up is Fri, 11-24, 7:00 p.m. This committee will start functioning primarily when spring semester begins.

VACANCY ON THE SBA: Larry Bittner, 3rd year day rep, has resigned as rep because of work commitments that do not enable him to devote the amount of time he feels is necessary to be an effective SBA rep. Nominations for persons to fill this position will be taken from 3rd year day students (you can nominate yourself or others) and the SBA Board of Governors will then vote and select a 3rd year day rep. Nominations should be put in the SBA box in the faculty center on the second floor. Deadline for nominations is Thur., 11-16, 7:00 p.m. The SBA will vote on Tues., 11-21.

SBA MEETING: Tues., 11-14 5:00, room TBA.
